

Use Commerce Fuel Oil

For ten years we have been supplying the North Shore with clean-burning high quality fuel oil

COMMERCE PETROLEUM CO.

GENERAL OFFICES
2921 Lock St.
Chicago

Telephones
NORTH SHORE OFFICE
Wil. 900 - Winn. 855

Telephones
CHICAGO OFFICES
Virginia 2000

Use Commerce Fuel Oil

Lincoln Market

519 Central Avenue

Phone Highland Park 3140

Swift's Premium Sliced Bacon, lb. 42c

Our Best Colonial Ham, ^{none better} lb. 32c

Best Native Pot Roast, lb. 32c

Swift's Golden West Hens, lb. 40c

Short Leg Fine Spring Lamb, lb. 35c

Swift's Premium Frankforts, lb. 30c

Lean Boiling Beef, lb. 18c

Grogan's Fancy Boneless

Brisket Corn Beef, lb. 35c

Shop here and you will get 16 ounces to every pound, and the very highest quality of meats and poultry

Patronize Press Advertisers

Grandmothers' Class Surprises Mrs. Fehr On Eightieth Birthday

The "Grandma's" class of the Sunday school of the Bungalow church gave one of its members a pleasant birthday surprise last Friday afternoon, July 5.

It was Grandma Fehr's eighty-third birthday and the party was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. I. A. Rapp. She received a number of beautiful gifts and many greeting cards and bouquets of flowers. The class presented her with two pairs of silk hose and a greeting card.

Games were played by all and dainty refreshments served by her daughters, Mrs. Rapp and Mrs. Chester Wessling.

The class consists of ten grandmas, four of whom are past eighty years of age. One was out of town and all the other nine were present at the party. Mrs. J. D. Carter is the teacher of the class.

Those of the class present were: Grandma Fehr, Mrs. Mary Wessling, Mrs. Margaret Freese, Miss Anna Kimball, Mrs. Rebecca Merner, Mrs. Fred Bleimehl, Mrs. Mary Fritsch, Mrs. Peter Perry and Mrs. Sarah Savage. Mrs. Sarah Plage is the one absent on vacation. Mrs. A. H. Muhler and Miss Laura Wessling were the invited visitors.

The others present were the teacher, Mrs. J. D. Carter, and son, Raymond; Mrs. Fehr's daughters, Mrs. Rapp and Mrs. Wessling; her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Clayton S. Fehr, and daughters, Arline and Lois, and Mrs. Ella Rapp, an aunt of Mr. Rapp.

All parted agreeing they had a good time and wishing for Grandma Fehr many more happy birthdays.

Those interested express appreciation to Rev. A. P. Johnson, Mrs. Fred Stryker, Miss Mirriam Stryker and Mr. Peter Perry, who used their cars to transport the grandmas to the party and to their homes.

W. C. T. U. To Meet Tuesday, July 16

The W. C. T. U. will meet next Thursday, July 16, at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. G. A. Stanley on Waukegan road, near Orchard lane. If the weather is fine it will be held on the lawn in the shade of the trees and refreshments will be served. If it is rainy we will hold the meeting in the house.

It will take the form of a tea party and you will enjoy a social treat if you will attend.

All who are or have been members of the W. C. T. U. with all interested friends are invited.

Consider it your duty to attend this due tea party and come prepared to do your part toward W. C. T. U. work and enjoy a social hour together. All are welcome.

Food and Bakery Sale

The Woman's Missionary society of the Bungalow church will hold a food and bakery sale Saturday afternoon, July 13, beginning at 2 p. m., at Hoffman's store, corner of Deerfield avenue and Waukegan road. Purchase your food and bakery goods here. For special orders call Mrs. Stanley, Deerfield 358.

Capacity Audience Hears Summer Recital

Regardless of heat and storm, a capacity audience, both attentive and appreciative, greeted the young piano students of Miss Frances Biederstadt Monday evening at the Presbyterian church. Of especial interest of the usual solo numbers which displayed the same artistic values Miss Biederstadt's work has come to be known for were the two piano arrangements, one of the "Venetian Love Song" of Nevin, played by Helen and Mrs. Engstrom with true conception for its suave content, and the "Good Night Song" of the same composer, played by David Stryker and Edgeley Todd, with a fine discrimination for its spiritual feeling. An eight-hand arrangement of the "Rondo Villageois" by Dennee, played by David Stryker and Helen Engstrom, first piano, Edgeley Todd and Edith Metcalf second piano, was appreciated for the absolute precision and unity with which it was performed and the spirit of fun which it evoked.

Ft. Sheridan Horse Show Starts Friday Lasts Thru Saturday

The Fifth Annual Fort Sheridan Horseshow begins Friday morning, at 9:00 o'clock, and will last through Saturday afternoon with morning and afternoon sessions each day. More than two hundred horses are entered in the thirty-five different classes for which over three thousand dollars will be awarded in cash and plate prizes. The show, held for the combined benefit of the Army Relief society and the School Fund for Post Children, and sponsored by the society circles of Chicago and the north shore, will be held in the outdoor ring here, already famous for the preceding four shows.

Notable Entries

Among those who have entered horses are Major General Frank Parker, Brigadier General Casper H. Conrad, Jr., Hon. Noble B. Judah, Colonel E. Pierce, Major W. C. Chase, Lieutenant Roy D. Keehn, Jr., Messrs. Austin H. Niblack, Chester D. Baird, William McCormick Blair, John T. Pirie, Frank J. Allen, Samuel J. Walker, Joseph T. Bowen, William E. Hughes, Gus S. Swift, III, Hayes O'Brien, Frederick Poole, Jr., Frank Boring, B. F. Stein, Benjamin Leslie Behr, Earl G. Burr, Donald B. Douglas, R. J. Hines, Laurance W. Armour, William A. Rafferty, Martin J. Insull, George A. Strom, Jr., Mrs. A. C. Thompson, Mrs. William Swift, Mrs. R. R. McCormick, Mrs. I. J. Rider, Mrs. Howard Linn, Miss Elizabeth Chase, Miss Eleanor Waegler, Miss Betty Poor, Miss Theodora Winters, and Miss Marie Swift.

More Trouble

By the way, now that woman is taking man's place and there is equality of the sexes all along the line, why cannot one of our young bachelors of arts be called a sweet boy graduate?—Hartford Courant.

Few methods of farm relief compare with a good job in town.—Richmond News Leader.

There is room for only one "ism" in this nation and that is Americanism.—Indianapolis Star.

DEERFIELD LIBRARY

Regulations Governing the Use of the Library

Deerfield Public Library. These rules are for the use of the library by all its patrons. Books may be renewed unless reserved for two weeks.

The date on which a book will be found facing the pocket.

Books may be renewed by telephone by noting the title and number.

Any reasonable amount may be taken at a time.

Two cents a week for each book kept over the limit.

All losses or injuries to books are the responsibility of the borrower and will be adjusted.

Borrowers are requested to return books to the library of any other town.

Recent gifts to the library are: Stock Views and other Mr. and Mrs. W. Builders' Catalogue Lumber Co. from the American Post.

In the library

In the library Books for ever Glad-day books Sad-day books Books to make Office books Shop-room books Books to make rise.

Out-door books Indoor books Books of tales Funny books Sunny books Fairy tales

Boyhood books Manhood books Books for girls Camping books Tramping books Books for children

Ludlow Is on Dis

Earl Ludlow with assault to lowing a mixup Policeman O. E. and broke the books on a disorder when he was arrested Magistrate John field late last week