Dick Martin Again in Golf Limelight

Dick Martin, from Briergate, who doubtless will be a member of the University of Illinois golf team as a sophomore next year, led the qualifiers in the Chicago district golf association's amateur championship at Exmoor yesterday, shooting 70-76-140.

He was two shots better than Gus Novotny of Edgewood Valley and three ahead of Dick Mullen of La Grange, western junior champion, who were next in line. On the whole scores were remarkably high, the more amazing as the day was perfect for golf. Five eventually tied for the last two places in the sixteen who begin match play this morning at 157.

The pairings for today's first round:

Francis R. Blossom, Indian Hill (155), and Don MacMurray, Exmoor (155); W. K. Childs, Skokie (155), and John Lehman, Gary, Ind. (150); George W. Thomas, Jr., Flossmoor (153), and R. C. Mullen, La Grange (149); R. C. Martin, Briergate (146), and Fred Lyons, Pontiac, Ill. (157); John Van Nortwick, Chicago Golf (154), and Gus Novotny, Edgewood Valley (148); Walter Crowe, Green Valley (154), and J. R. Lenfestey, Jr., Exmoor (156); Ralph Morgan, Midcity (157), and Charles Beck, Calumet (157); D. E. Sawyer, Midlothian (153), and Don Armstrong, Aurora (153).

HE HAD THE PROOF

One of our pals was FISHING at Lake Geneva last week, and you know how fast fish can GROW after they have been CAUGHT and the FISHER gets back to TELL about them. Well NATURALLY everybody just DIVIDES your stories by TWO the first week you are BACK and by FOUR the second week and by the THIRD week they don't even believe you EVER went fishing at ALL. But this chap had the PROOF this time for he took along a Kodak from our STORE and he brought back a FINE bunch of PICTURES of EVERYTHING except the one that GOT AWAY, and at last reports THAT one was still GROWING.

Moral: A one-armed man can fish but he can't tell about it with any satisfaction.
