That Lake county has grown 2,000 in population since the first of this year is according to a survey completed by the Chicago association.

Frances Summerfield, Chicago, was bitten by a turtle while swimming in Round Lake, according to Dr. H. D. Struthers of Grayslake. Miss Summerfield hastened to the physician's office where the wound was cauterized and a serum treatment given.

Fire on Chesney Farm No. 2, between Lake Villa and Fox Lake, last night burned 10,000 chickens and destroyed property with a value estimated at $10,000.

Most of the Waukegan local retail establishments observed a half holiday Wednesday in line with the policy of these concerns to close on Wednesday afternoons during the months of July and August.

A petition protesting against the issuance of a permit to the Homer Dehringer post of the American Legion at Waukegan for holding of its annual festival on the lake front during the first week in September, was received and placed on file for further consideration by the city council last week.

Surveying of the proposed new Waukegan postoffice site at the northeast corner of Madison and Utica streets started last week giving Waukegan citizens their first definite assurance that the treasury department planned to condemn this site for a new structure.

The board of review is not experiencing the rush of business it had at this time last year, a checkup showed today. Last year the total number of tax kicks was 251, but that figure proved to be an exceptional one. So far this summer about 30 complaints have been filed for investigation.

Hartley LaChappelle, of Waukegan, is one of twenty members of the reserve officers training corps at the University of Wisconsin to be granted a U. S. Army officer's commission following completion of requirements in the four year course at the university. Only two other Illinois men, Q. S. Lander of Rockford and Wallace M. Jensen of Elgin received commissions.

Nearly ten tons of the game fish destroyers have been taken from the lake. The seining is being carried on by the Waukegan chapter, Izaak Walton League.
