

Picnic in Ravinia for Chicago Commons

On Tuesday morning, July 30, at 11:00 o'clock, the mothers and children of the Chicago Commons will arrive at Ravinia for the annual picnic with the Woman's club of that community.

The Philanthropy committee has planned an afternoon which they know will be intensely enjoyed and long remembered—a picnic lunch under the trees at the beautiful Ravinia school grounds, then games for those so inclined, and lastly a drive to the beach, where swimming and sunning will be enjoyed.

Anyone who can help to give a happy day to these friends by lending a car; by bringing food for the picnic, or flowers which our guests will love to take home, will be amply repaid for any trouble in seeing the great pleasure these small things will bring.

If you are interested to help in any way, call Mrs. E. E. Leonard, at Highland Park 2963.

The sheriff's office here was notified in the hope that he might be captured in case he made his way north.

Longview Park Fine Improvement to City

People who have occasion to drive along South St. Johns avenue note with gratification that Supt. Edward M. Laing of the East Park district is having flowers planted along the right of way of the North Shore line from Beach street to Ravinia Park. The Park board, in conjunction with the North Shore line, has recently leveled and planted the right of way with grass and shrubs and named it Longview park. It adds greatly to the beauty of the south side of the city, and the Park board and the North Shore line merit much credit for the improvement. Let's keep this kind of good work going forward. The first impression a visitor coming into town receives is always a lasting impression.

Glencoe Community Day Is August 15th

Announcement was made last week of a change in plans for the community picnic which the Glencoe Chamber of Commerce will hold Thursday, August 15. The site of the picnic has been changed from Crystal Lake to Dam No. 1 at Wheeling.

Members of the committee in charge of arrangements, of which Earl Bent is chairman, decided after taking the matter up with individual members of the chamber that it would be advisable to hold the picnic closer to Glencoe in order that a larger number of villagers may enjoy the affair. It was thought that if the picnic was held at Crystal Lake, thirty-five miles from Glencoe, many business men and other residents could not be there in time to enjoy all of the day's festivities.

Dam No. 1 at Wheeling, the new picnic site, is about fourteen miles from Glencoe. It is about one mile south of Dundee road on Milwaukee avenue.

Among suburban winners is Thomas C. Lester, Deerfield-Shields.

Dynamite Explosion Does Slight Damage

A loud explosion aroused residents of this and neighboring communities about 12:20 Monday night and for a time the cause was a mystery. The police investigated and learned that the blast had occurred in a new house under erection on County Line road, and search uncovered several sticks of dynamite in one corner which had not exploded. It is supposed by the police the blast was the result of some labor trouble, and the matter is being investigated. The charge which exploded blew a hole in the floor and another in the siding.

Children and Ravinia

There is no doubt that Ravinia has implanted in us a supreme love of music and a keen appreciation of the beautiful melodies one hears in the world's best music. Education in the musical world for some of us has been dreadfully lacking, and the writer is thinking of her earlier years when Ravinia's beauty lay close at hand. Many trips were made to that charming place where Nature's handiwork and the product of musical genius are so pleasingly combined. Today, for her, Ravinia is not so accessible. The radio brings into the modern home much of the lovely music for which Ravinia is famous. Listening to the stirring Toreador music, the dainty music from Sylvia and the countless other melodies, the writer has realized what a splendid education Ravinia can offer the children.

Parents should make a great effort to see that the children spend as much time at Ravinia as possible, and to use the programs as text books, endeavouring to have them learn names of pieces and composers, thus instilling in them a greater appreciation of the beauty to be found in this delightful place.—Esther Baker Clark.

Deerfield Train in Collision in Chicago; Nobody Seriously Hurt

Scores of passengers were frightened and shaken, but none was hurt, Tuesday when a Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Pacific suburban train out of Deerfield crashed into a freight train on the outskirts of the Chicago yards.

The passenger train was proceeding slowly at the time of the collision as it was working its way into the railroad yards. The impact with the freight train was so great that it derailed two of the box cars and shook the passenger train from one end to the other.

The coaches were loaded with commuters preparing to start the days work in Chicago. A large number of them were from Deerfield, as the train makes up there and many Deerfield residents have offices and employment in Chicago.

The train pulls out of Deerfield at 5:40 o'clock in the morning daylight saving time. There is no other Lake county stop, but there are about nine others made in Cook county before the train arrives at the central station. By the time it reaches the Chicago yards it is loaded as a rule.

The fact that the train was moving at such a slow rate of speed prevented a serious collision.
