Highland Park Methodist Church

Rev. Frank D. Hopkins, Minister

Those failing to attend church these beautiful Sunday mornings are missing some very helpful services. Even if it happens to be a very warm day, the church is not unduly hot and an abundance of palm leaf fans enables all to keep cool. The service is somewhat shortened these summer days and never exceeds an hour. Next Sunday, Mr. Oscar Myers, the blind singer, will favor us with a solo. The flower committee sees to it that the church is fragrant every Sunday with beautiful blooms.

The Annual Picnic held at Sunset Park last Saturday was a great success and the committee in charge left nothing undone to contribute to this. There were all sorts of races and stunts with fine prizes for winners, more ice cream and "pop" and cracker jack than could be eaten, and all free with the result that every boy and girl actually had all they could eat and drink of these refreshments. The attendance was very good and the day ideal.

The Ladies' Aid holds an all day meeting with Mrs. Trout this week Friday at her summer cottage at Tower Lake. All our women desiring to attend are asked to meet at the Laegeler Drug store Friday at 11:00 a.m. when autos will be there to take them.

The Tri-Mu Club-class held its regular social and business meeting at the parsonage this week Wednesday evening. This class and the corresponding class for girls, both of high school age, now number over fifty young people and have well attended sessions every Sunday notwithstanding the hot weather.

THE STORY OF DANIEL

Daniel 1:1-4, 19, 20; 2:17-24

Rev. Samuel D. Price, D.D.

This book which will be studied for three weeks is rich in thrills. Youth is particularly fascinated in reading these accounts which help to emphasize the fact that truth is stranger than fiction. Plan to read all twelve chapters in these three weeks. Portions especially indicated for study this time by the Lessons Committee are 1:1-21; 2:13-19; 4:19; 7:28; 8:15-18; 9:20-23; 12:9.

Daniel did not follow the saying which is an excuse for many extra sins when away from home: "When in Rome do as the Romans do." Had he even observed the example of his own people when back in Palestine he would have followed the base customs of the Babylonians. Here is a lad who was deported as a captive and who held to the ways he had learned in his home back in Judæa.

This fine young fellow was soon noted by Aspenaz the keeper of the eunuchs in the household of Nebuchadnezzar. When the king asked that likely lads be searched out and brought to him for special favor this Jewish boy was chosen, as well as three of his companions. The specifications were a "youth in whom is no blemish, but well-favored and skillful in all wisdom, and endued with knowledge and understanding science, and such as had ability to stand in the king's palace." At once these four, with others in Babylon, were invited to eat the fancy food that was provided at the court table.

Principle asserted itself above the desire to gain a place in the house of the king. There, meats that had been offered to idols would be served. These the Jew must refuse for conscience sake and Daniel does this very thing. He asks that he and his friends may follow a vegetarian diet and drink only water during the coming ten days of preparation. They know that they will be physically better than those who would eat foods that would not be body-building. When the test came it took only a glance to show that the appearance of those who followed the simpler diet was superior. Then came the mental examination. In this they stood "ten times better" than all the lads of Babylonia whom Aspenaz brought forward. Thus Daniel was well started on the road that led in time to the prime ministry of the country to which he had been carried as a captive.

First United Evangelical Church

Rev. C. G. Unangst, Pastor
25 S. Greenbay Road
Phone Highland Park 1731

There was much blessing in the services on last Sunday. Three united with the church on confession of faith and four were baptized.

We are looking forward to Sunday and we believe it will be a good day at the church.

The pastor will preach on the following subjects: 10:45 a.m. "Christian Fellowship." "If we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth us from all sin." 1 John 1:7. 7:45 p.m. "By-Paths." There is a way that seemeth right to a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death." Prov. 16:25.

Interesting items concerning the progress of our work will be presented at the morning service. It is quite likely that, in addition to the sermon by the pastor, a new voice will be heard in the evening service. You should hear it.

Sunday school at 9:30 a.m. A mother brought her little girl to the church at nine o'clock on last Sunday saying that the child had begged her from six o'clock on to take her to the Bible school. Of course we gave her a royal welcome. The school brings happy experiences to all who attend. "The Story of Daniel," is the subject of the lesson for Sunday. Dan. 1:1-21. Visit our school if you are not attending elsewhere.

Ethel Hankins will lead the Christian Endeavor meeting at 7:00 p.m. Topic, "The Church and National Life." Matt. 13:31-33; Lk. 4:18, 19.

Song, praise and prayer service on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock.

The Swedish Methodist Church

Highwood avenue and Everts place
William W. Nelson, pastor

Thanks to the god work of our carpenter gang, our church is now displaying a new roof of silver-stained shingles. Every part of the roof has been re-shingled except the tower, which will receive its new coat of grey in the near future. The brick-veneer work is also progressing rapidly.

Our out-door service, held last Sunday evening for the laying of the corner stone, was successful considering the usual handicaps to be found at such an event: there was but little annoyance as the Highwood police diverted the traffic from our corner during the period of the service. Rev. Pearson gave a most appropriate and inspiring message; the weather was fine. We regret that Rev. Swan, our district superintendent, could not be with us at the time. He was confined to his bed with an infected foot. He will be with us on Tuesday evening, July 30, at 8 o'clock, when our fourth quarterly conference will be held in the church.

Sunday, July 28:

10:30 a.m. Sunday school.

6:00 p.m. Epworth league missionary service. Miss Amanda Carlson will have charge. Rev. Bengtson, pastor of the Swedish Mission church of Winnetka will speak.

9:00 p.m. Union service in Swedish. Rev. Engstrom, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church, will preach his farewell sermon. Everyone is invited to attend. Bring your friends.

Deerfield Presbyterian Church

The two congregations will gather in the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning, Aug. 4. The Rev. Joseph Taylor will preach the sermon.

Troop 52 will gather on Friday evening for the last scout meeting until September. All scouts are asked to be present and to prepare their own out-door meal. Opportunity will be given to pass any tests at this time.

Bethany Evangelical Church

Rev. H. F. Siemsen, Pastor

Mrs. F. C. Noerenberg, Mrs. Wm. Guyot, and Mrs. Geo. Titman are attending the State Woman's Missionary convention of the Evangelical church, which is being held at Naperville, Illinois, during this week.

Miss Esther Drake and Miss Mary Guyot will represent Bethany at the Religious Education training camp, at the same place, next week.

Next Sunday morning the pastor will speak on the subject "Tightening the Ropes." In the evening on "Playing square with others."

The Wednesday evening services are becoming very popular, especially with the young people, for which we are happy.
