

DEERFIELD NEWS-FLASHES

Deerfield News and Personal Items

Send contributions to local correspondent before Tuesday noon. Help her to make this section interesting.

MRS. LORETTA WILLMAN, Local Editor

Lincoln Ave., Deerfield, Ill.

Tel. Deerfield 153-R

Mrs. Raymond Meyer and infant son have returned from Highland Park hospital to their home on Deerfield avenue.

Carl Anderson, Raymond Clavey, James McLaughlin, R. E. Pettis, represented the Deerfield Gun club on Sunday at the Northern Illinois Amateur Trap Shooting league meeting held at Barrington. The next meeting will be held in Deerfield in September.

Mrs. R. E. Pettis attended a meeting of Northbrook pageant committee Thursday evening at Northbrook school.

Mrs. Jack Myers, Dorothy and Jack Myers and Jean Pettis spent Wednesday at Lake Zurich.

The C. T. Anderson and R. E. Pettis families spent Friday at Lincoln Park.

Mrs. H. Martin, Jack and Betty Clavey spent Monday at the Columbian Gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Conn of Chicago were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Myers, Sunday.

Miss Mayme Karch has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Saeman, in Cross Plains, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Knaak have rented the Clarence Sherden apartment on Waukegan road which will be vacated shortly by Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Bates who will move into their new home in Briarwoods.

Mrs. J. P. Ozanne of Oshkosh, Wis. was a guest of Mrs. L. C. Hole last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Page and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Scully, Jr., and two children, Miss Hazel Easton and Mr. Le Roy Scully spent Sunday at Lake Wandawega.

The Dorcas society of the Presbyterian church held a successful food sale on Saturday afternoon and wish to thank all who donated and patronized the affair.

Bobby Estes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Estes of Sheridan avenue, celebrated his third birthday anniversary. Mrs. James Barrett and children of Park Ridge were among the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Sloat and family of Chicago were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sloat of Hazel avenue on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Scully were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schinleber of Northbrook, Sunday.

Mrs. Harry E. Wing and son Shirley are at Delavan Lake, Wis., where they expect to spend a month.

Mrs. John Woodman and son Jack of Florida are house guests of Miss Sadie Galloway.

Mrs. Floyd Gunckel was a luncheon guest of Miss Catherine Gonnerman of Glencoe, Friday.

Mrs. Eugene Ender and Miss Clara Ender were hostesses at a delightful card party at their homes on Saturday afternoon for the benefit of the Holy Cross church. Included among the guests were a group from Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Reeds and family departed Saturday morning to spend the week with relatives in Missouri.

Mrs. Orris Montgomery underwent a tonsil operation last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fowler have returned to their home on Hazel avenue from a three weeks' vacation in Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Frantz and daughter Olive are on a motor trip.

Mr. W. B. Carr was able to return to work last week. Mr. Carr was injured eight months ago when he fell from a train.

Carl Reeds, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Reeds of Orchard street celebrated his fifth birthday anniversary on last Wednesday afternoon.

The Deerfield R.N.A. juveniles held an interesting meeting in the Masonic temple on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Brennan and son left Sunday morning to visit relatives in Moline, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Miller had as their dinner guests on Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. F. Coolidge and Mrs. Miller of Maywood.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rommel and two daughters, Janet and Ruth, of La Grange, Ill., were guests of Mrs. J. Rommel on Sunday.

Miss Eleanor Meyer, Miss Elizabeth Schilstra and Mrs. D. W. Meyer have returned from an extensive motor tour of the west.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schinleber returned to their home on Chestnut street, Friday, after spending the past year with relatives in Des Moines and Harlem, Ia. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rohode and daughter of Harlem accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Schinleber and are spending the week in Deerfield.

Miss Sadie Galloway was hostess at bridge in compliment to her guest, Mrs. John Woodman on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Hugh Patterson is quite ill at his home on Brierhill road.

Mrs. Carl Olson has as her guests her father, Mr. Albert Sahlberg, her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Ben. Johnson of St. Cloud, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Hutchison have returned from a two weeks motor trip. They visited relatives in Tulsa, Oklahoma and Missouri.

On Tuesday, Mrs. Elmer Clavey was hostess to a luncheon bridge at her home on Deerfield avenue. Eight guests attended.

Attend Training School at Lake Geneva

Rev. and Mrs. F. G. Piepenbrok and Miss Frances Borchardt left Monday for Lake Geneva where they will attend the International Council Training school. From there Rev. Piepenbrok and his family will go to Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. John Piepenbrok for a few days. The last week of their vacation will be spent at Lake Tomahawk, Wis. They expect to be away until August 22.

The services during the pastor's absence will be in charge of Rev. Mark Andrews of the Presbyterian church. Services will be held at the St. Paul's Evangelical church July 28 and August 11; at the Presbyterian church August 4 and 18.

Mrs. John Stoeck Buys Rosemary Shop

Miss Ardele Agardh owner of the Rosemary Shop on Waukegan road, has sold her business to Mrs. John Stoeck, of Hazel avenue, Deerfield. Miss Agardh, whose home is in Chicago found it necessary to sell on account of her father's illness.

Miss Martha Karch has recovered from recent illness and is able to resume duties at C. M. & St. Paul railroad office.

Robert Bleimehl has been ill for the past week at his home on Deerfield avenue.

Mrs. F. W. Russo was a luncheon guest of Mrs. William Russo and niece, Rosemarie Russo, on Thursday in Chicago. Rosemarie has recently graduated from University of Kansas and expects to teach in Chicago this coming season.

Mrs. Harry Olendorf and Mrs. J. W. Strong attended their luncheon-bridge club in Libertyville on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Russo has as their dinner guests on Sunday Mr. Joseph Russo, Mr. and Mrs. William Russo and son, Billy, and Miss Ruth Moldar of Chicago.

Mrs. R. Stryker and family of three children who have been visiting Mrs. Stryker's mother, Mrs. L. T. Knaak for several weeks departed for their home in Muncie, Indiana, Monday.

Mrs. E. K. Williams of Nashville, Ind., is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. F. W. Russo.

The Bert Krogstad, J. R. Notz, Haute, T. P. Browning, C. E. Bates, Ralph Peterson, Earl Varner, Eugene Beck and Norman Peterson attractive homes in Briarwood subdivision are nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy some time in September.

Mrs. J. W. Strong was hostess to the Sewing club Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Richard Harington and children of Chicago are visiting with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Horenberger.

Mrs. Carl Horenberger and family visited with Mrs. Horenberger's father on Friday in Wilmette.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter B. Metcalf are entertaining relatives.

Garden Club Has Delightful Meeting

At the home of Mrs. Lewis Ashman on Deerfield road, the Garden club of Deerfield was delightfully entertained on Wednesday afternoon July 17.

In a very charming manner, Mrs. Frank W. Russo discussed the Gardner's Library, which proved a source of valuable information. She also passed to each member a list of seven most interesting books for gardeners.

Following the program, the members enjoyed the lovely gardens of their hostess.

Bring Flowers for Ft. Sheridan Hospital

Each Monday is Deerfield's day to contribute flowers for distribution among the hundred or so soldiers at Ft. Sheridan hospital. If you have any flowers which you would like to give please bring them on Monday mornings to the home of Mrs. L. Ashman, the first house east of Deerfield road. If you find it inconvenient to bring them call Deerfield 325, and we will gladly collect them. All flowers are welcome, whether the bunch be small or large. But be sure to have them ready before noon.

David Miller Buys Shell Service Station

David Miller, formerly of Chicago has purchased the Shell Service Station on Waukegan road, Deerfield, from Miss Heman.

Mr. Miller's motto will be service and it is his desire to do all in his power to please his patrons.

Is Your Garden Ready?

Garden club members are again reminded of the dates for inspection of local gardens, which are August 9 and 30 and requested to notify Mrs. Frank Burroughs on which of these dates their gardens will be ready.

Defeat Wheeling 4-3

Deerfield baseball club added another victory to their score when they defeated Wheeling 4-3 on the Jewett Field Sunday afternoon.

Reception and Dance

A grand reception and dance will be given by the people of Deerfield and Everett at St. Patrick's hall on Saturday, July 27 for the benefit of Holy Cross and St. Patrick churches.

Picnic Held Sunday

At Sunset Park, Highland Park on Sunday, members of the St. Paul's Evangelical church enjoyed their annual picnic.

Church services at 11 o'clock opened the program for the day which was followed by basket lunches, games, races, ball game and general good time throughout the day.

Dorcas Society Picnic

The Dorcas society of the Presbyterian church is planning to hold their annual picnic at the Green Tree Inn on Thursday, Aug. 1. Members and their families are invited and requested to bring their lunch.