DOLLAR DAYS FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Watch the merchant's windows and read the "ads" in this week's Press for Dollar Day bargains Friday and Saturday.

In winter, the railroad trains have to plough through the snow all through the automobiles which pass over the crossings in front of them.

If some folks would toil a little more diligently, their better results would incite them to keep out of the toils of the law.

Inspirational addresses are fine, but we also need some perspirational ones to induce people to take hold and do some real work.

WRITE RIGHT

That old saying that a person is known by the company he keeps is absolutely right, and we think you can go a little bit further with the idea and say that a person is often judged by the kind of stationery he uses, which applies even more to the ladies than it does to the men, and we would like to say right here that we can supply you with stationery that will pass the most critical test—paper of real quality, either in white or tints, put up in convenient sized boxes—and what's more, you'll be just as surprised at the low prices as you will be delighted with the stationery.

Moral: Your correspondence will always be absolutely right with our stationery.
