COMMERCE CHAMBER MONTHLY MEETING

Good Attendance and Much Enthusiasm Tuesday Night;
Business Matters

Marked by much interest and enthusiasm, the regular monthly meeting of the Highland Park Chamber of Commerce was held Tuesday evening at the Green Teapot, preceded by the usual fine dinner at 6:30, during which mass singing of favorite songs was a feature, with Robert Schneider at the piano and G. J. Dinkeloo leading the singing. About 45 members were present.

President Udell introduced Mr. John B. Maling, whose topic "Freak Legislation" was listened to with a great deal of interest by those present.

The firm of Hattstrom & Sanders, 391 Central avenue, Highland Park was voted in as a member of the Highland Park Chamber of Commerce.

A communication from the Orphan's Automobile Day association was read, asking that the Chamber of Commerce again provide transportation for the children of the Dorcas home to and from Lincoln Park on August 21st. Sol. St. Peter made a motion, seconded and carried, that the Chamber of Commerce have these children as guests for that day and that we supply a bus for their picnic.

Albert Larson announced that the United States Veteran's hospital committee had arranged for Axel Christensen, noted radio artist, to entertain the inmates on August 21, and urges that members attend this function if possible.

Fritz Geiser, chairman of the Golf committee, has arranged that the last big golf tournament of the year is to be held at the Nippersink Golf club August 21st, and that every member of the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary club, Lions club and other merchants, are to be invited.

Deibler Announcing
New Chrysler Models

J. B. Deibler announces the arrival of the 1930 Chrysler models which will consist of four lines, three new sixes and the Imperial 80, which is continued. Of the three new lines, the Seventy-seven succeeds the seventy-five, the Seventy succeeds the Sixty-five and the Sixty-six is a brand new offering, the first six with the Chrysler name to be priced below $1,000. Several notable changes appear in these new lines, including a four-speed gearset and a down-draft carburetion system. The engines are larger and more powerful, providing increased speed and improved performance. The price range is from $985 to $1,765.

Among other new features are the Paraflex spring suspension and chimney type rubber shock insulators. The bodies, new in design, are called "Architonic."

An interesting innovation in the 77 and the 70 is the four-speed gearset, which Chrysler is calling the "multi-range gear shift." It is somewhat different from other four-speed transmissions.

D. A. R. Members Enjoy
Visit to Ft. Sheridan
Training Camp Aug. 8

Daughters of the American Revolution of Illinois were guests at Fort Sheridan last Thursday and women from all over the state came at the invitation of General Conrad and enjoyed a very interesting and informative day witnessing the activities of the Citizens Military Training camp, according to reports from the local D.A.R. chapter.

Everything possible was done for the entertainment and comfort of the guests. Guides were provided for a tour of inspection of the camp, chairs provided for viewing the races and games and delightful music and refreshments featured the reception at the officers' club which closed the day's events.

It was an impressive and inspiring sight, says the report, to see the bronzed boys in khaki march onto the parade ground, company after company, and it helped the spectators to realize the extent and significance of this great opportunity offered thousands of boys each year.

The state regent of the D.A.R., Mrs. Dixon, and other state officers were present and also many members of the local chapter on the north shore, including the regent, Mrs. J. B. Garnett.

An equally instructive and delightful day is expected on August 21, when the members will be entertained at Great Lakes, and it is hoped that many of the women of the local chapter may be able to avail themselves of this opportunity to meet members from all over the state.

Many activities and much interest has been constantly maintained by Highland Park women at Great Lakes, not only by the D.A.R., but also by the Highland Park Woman's club, the American Legion Auxiliary and other organizations, and a day of especially planned schedule of events offers a valuable opportunity to gain a larger vision of this part of our nation's business, the report declares.

J. B. Garnett's Father
Dies in LaCrosse, Wis.

Last Saturday evening J. B. Garnett received a telegram to the effect that his father, S. G. Garnett, was seriously ill at his home in LaCrosse, Wis., and Mr. and Mrs. Garnett left immediately for that city. Yesterday a letter was received here from them announcing the death of the elder Mr. Garnett, which occurred Tuesday. They planned to leave Wednesday for Rock Island, after a short service at the home of Mrs. Ruggles in LaCrosse, and the ceremonies at Rock Island are to be held at 10 o'clock this morning. The many friends of the Garnetts in this city extend sincere sympathy.

Sullivan Is Held to Grand Jury on Charge of Killing Landlady

George Sullivan, 49-year old golf caddy, arrested in connection with the death of Mrs. George McGraw, his landlady, last week, on Saturday was held to the October grand jury, without bail, after he had waived preliminary hearing on a charge of murder, in Justice A. E. Smith's court.

At an inquest held just prior to the preliminary hearing the coroner's jury, under Coroner John L. Taylor, of Libertyville, found that the victim had died of wounds inflicted by blunt instruments and from the evidence they recommended that Sullivan be held to the grand jury on a charge of murder.

Sullivan waived his defense at the preliminary hearing and was not represented by counsel.

States Attorney in Charge

States Attorney A. V. Smith, who authorized the warrant Aug. 5, when the woman died, took charge of the hearing.

An ice pick and hammer were used to beat the woman, the police believe, and these instruments have been turned over to William D. McNally, coroner's chemist of Cook county, who is analyzing the weapons for traces of human blood. Col. Smith is confident that the ice pick will show blood as he believes it is evident to the eye.

Chief Moroney holds the theory that Sullivan beat the woman to a point near death during a frenzy of jealousy. They were both cured drug addicts, according to Sullivan, and he had lived at the home sometime. The beating followed the return of the woman, who was 48 years old, from an automobile ride with two former roomers. They sold her a car, the police report.

Soon after the ride Sullivan notified police that he had found his landlady in a dying condition at home. They held him after the report because they found his chest scratched and his shirt marked with blood.

The prisoner denied that he witnessed or played any part in the beating.
