AN ESTATE
from Insurance Policies

The modern insurance trust offers so sound and practical a plan by which most men can create immediately an estate for those dependent on them, that we recommend it strongly for your early attention. Will you not telephone our Trust Officer when an appointment will be convenient?

By instructing your insurance companies to pay the principal sum of your policies to this institution as trustee you can arrange to provide highly skilled management of this money for the benefit of your heirs. You can give instructions that will cover your own particular circumstances and needs. Such an agreement is flexible; practical and economical. In effect, it insures your insurance, so that you know the protection you plan when you buy insurance will be provided for your loved ones without fail.

By depositing securities with us under a trust agreement, you can arrange to have the income used to pay insurance premiums. This will materially increase your estate at once and is no further bother to you.

There are many adaptations of the insurance trust plan that make it attractive to every thoughtful man. Our Trust Officer will be glad to tell you about them. Get in touch with him soon.
