BRIEF NEWS ITEMS FROM LAKE COUNTY

Happenings in This Neighborhood and at County Seat of Interest Locally

While Sheriff L. A. Doolittle and police along the North Shore were on the lookout for Harry L. Wieder, 50, who eluded police who laid siege to his house on Dundee road near Wheeling after he had attempted to murder one of their number, Wieder returned to Wheeling and surrendered to the authorities there last week.

Wieder, crazed from drinking moonshine, held the police at bay for almost an hour, made his escape into woods surrounding his home and then fled in his automobile into Lake county after the authorities gave up the vigil at his place.

Practically an entire city block in the heart of the Libertyville business district has been purchased by a syndicate of men interested in the development, will run about $220,000.

The block involved in the deal is bounded by Milwaukee avenue, Church street and Cook avenue. Plans of the syndicate include the construction of a hotel, theatre, stores and other improvements. It is also probable that the highway at that place may be widened 17 feet in order to conform to the superhighway plans in the Chicago-to-Milwaukee route.

Forced from the highway by a road hog, Mrs. Etta Trimmer, 50 years old, wife of William Trimmer, retired general claim agent for the Pennsylvania railroad, residing at 29 Sheldon street, Chicago, was instantly killed last week when she struck on her head on the concrete pavement after being thrown from her automobile, on Route 21 near Libertyville.

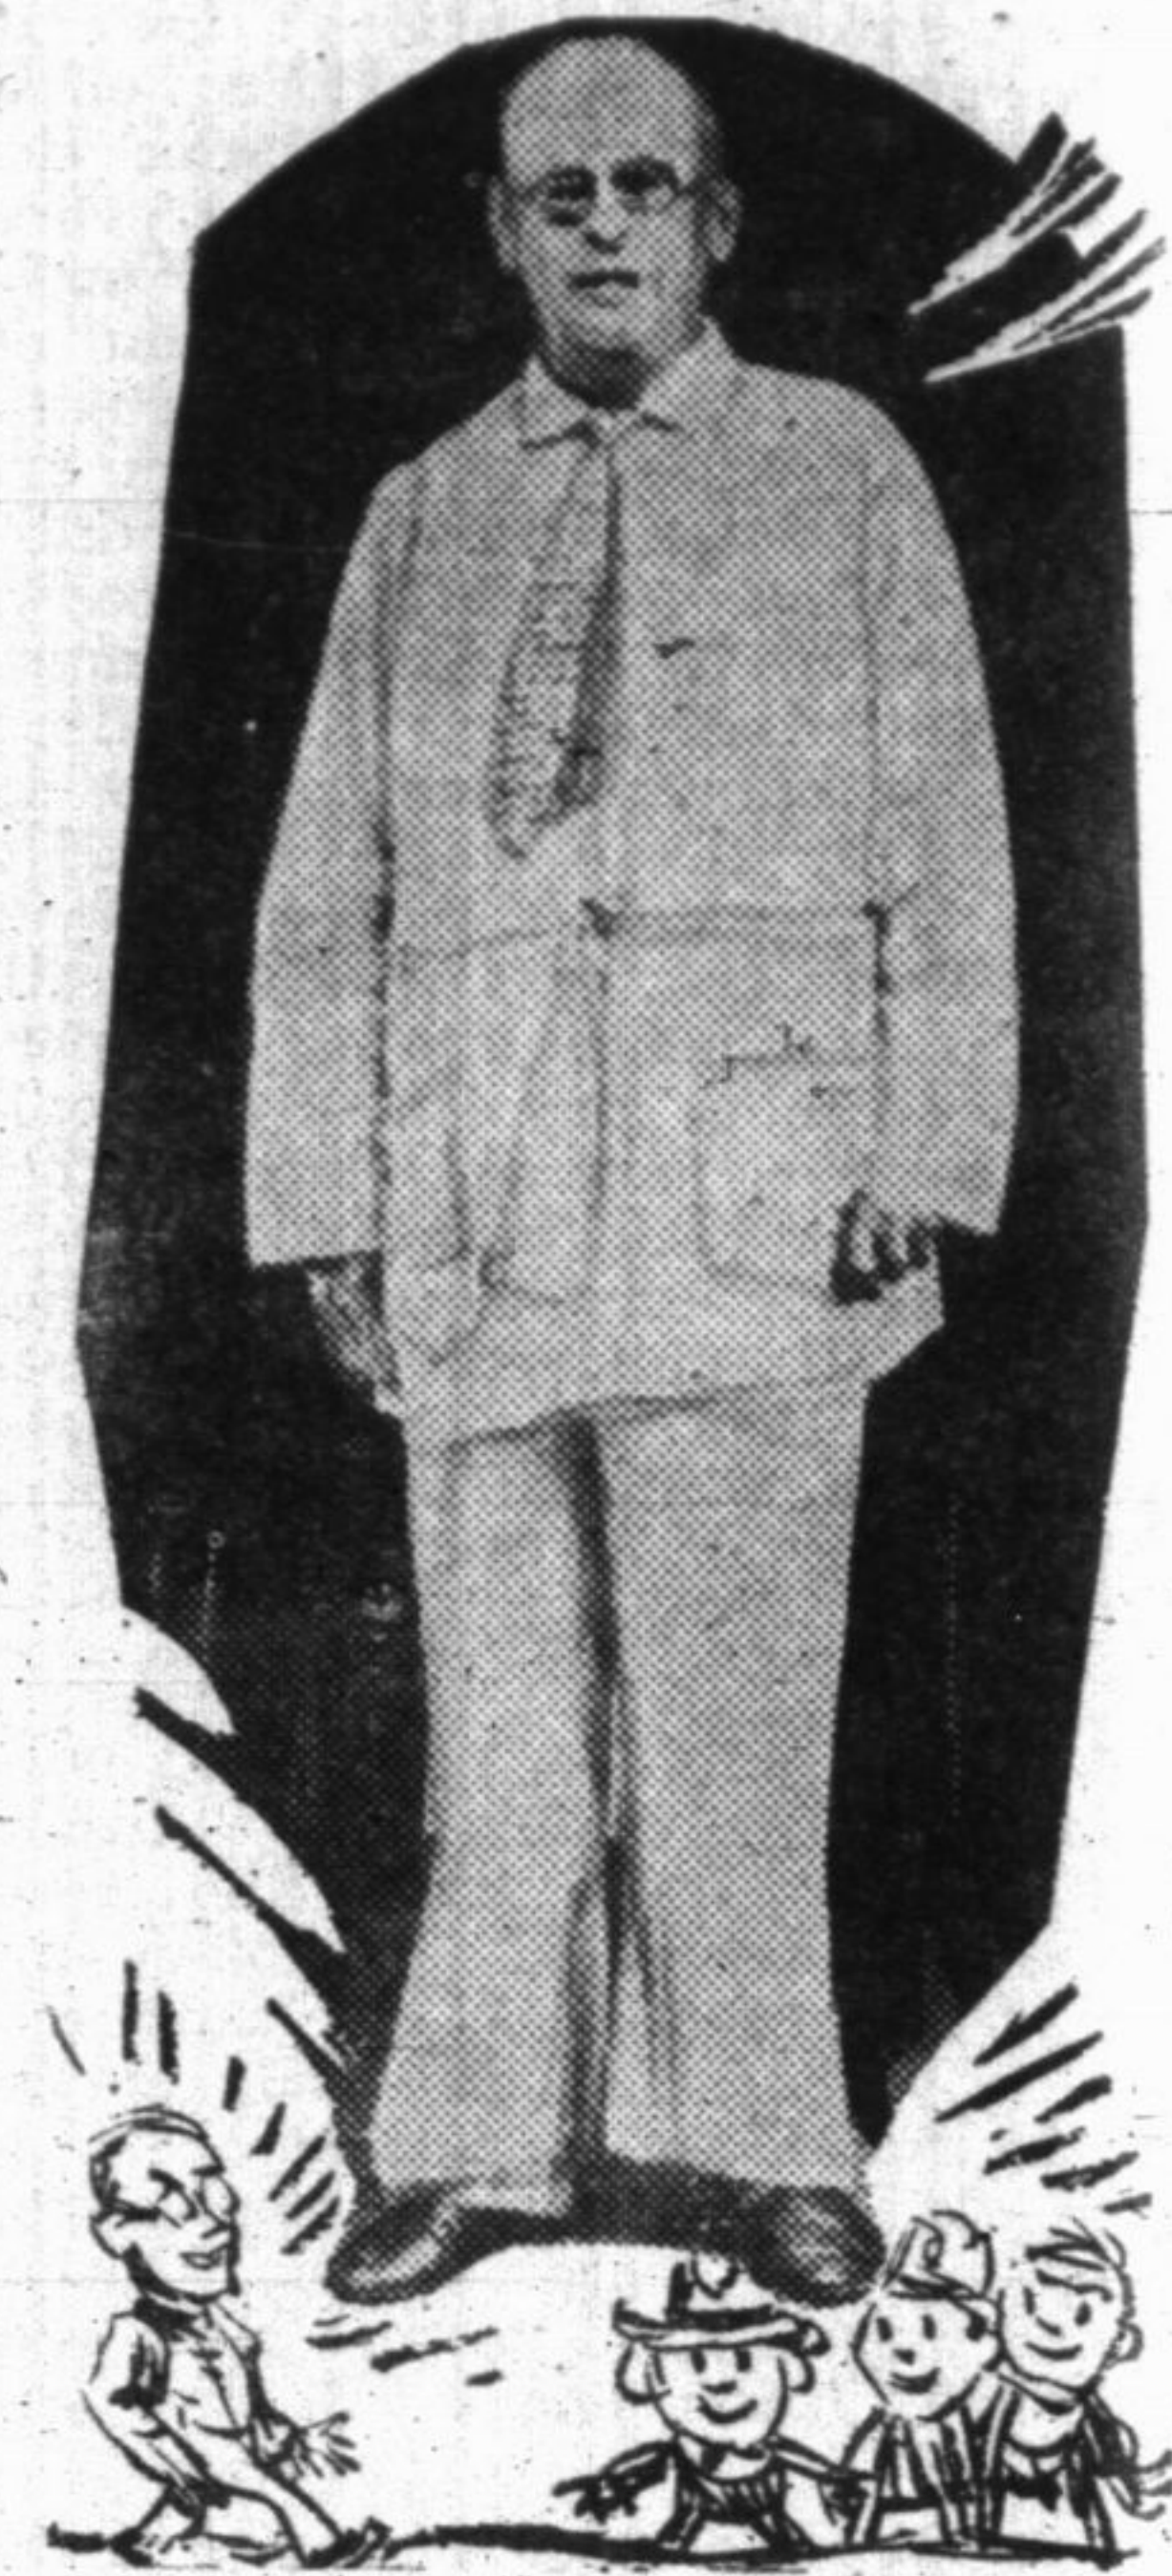

Weakened by years of suffering following the sustaining of a fracture of the neck when he dove into shallow water at the Waukegan Municipal beach, Samuel F. Greenleaf, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Greenleaf of 243 Stewart avenue died at his home last week, unable to weather the shock of an operation for appendicitis which he underwent. He was 24 years of age.

Two car loads of armed men, lurking in the darkness of Bulkley road and the St. Poul tracks near Rondout, last week tried to halt Richard Earl, of Libertyville, who is a special deputy, and later gave chase only to lose their prey when he took a gravel road to Libertyville.

A Nebraska poultry fancier has produced a hen which has no wings. The theory is that the hen, being without wings and so unable to go any place, will stay at home and attend to the egg laying.

They have arrested a speeder in Detroit who turns out to be deaf and dumb and has never had an accident. Maybe this is evidence that the greater danger to motor drives comes from the back seat.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

Started Something

W. C. Saunders, Elizabeth City, N. C., publisher in the pajamas which he recently wore on the public streets. He was arrested, but nothing was found in the law to make his action punishable. Instead of being punished Saunders was praised in the form of a proclamation saying any citizen had the right to dress as he or she pleased. This started something, several others in cities throughout the U. S. adopting the pajama costume.

North Chicago Days to Be Aug. 17 and 18

Banners are flying, decorations are being hung and North Chicago is beginning to take on a gala appearance in preparation for its 3rd annual great event, North Chicago Days, which are to be celebrated Saturday, August 17 and Sunday, August 18.

Because of the tremendous success of the celebration during the past, two days have again been set aside in which to celebrate this event.

A big parade is scheduled for Saturday afternoon, Saturday, August 17. Judging from the size and character of previous parades, this year's parade should be one of the best ever seen in Lake County.
