

DEERFIELD NEWS-FLASHES

Deerfield News and Personal Items

Send contributions to local correspondent before Tuesday noon. Help her to make this section interesting.

MRS. LORETTA WILLMAN, Local Editor

Lincoln Ave., Deerfield, Ill.

Tel. Deerfield 153-R

In the cover picture of the Highland Park Press, and of the Deerfield Press, of the issue of August 15, showing some of those present at the laying of the corner stone of the new City Hall of Highland Park, the little light haired girl, held above the heads of the workmen at the left of the photograph, is Dorothy Jean Anderson, daughter of Carl T. and Elizabeth Reichelt Anderson, who was in the arms of her maternal grandmother who is obscured by those in front.

Mrs. R. D. Reeds of Orchard street was hostess to a bridge luncheon at her home on Orchard street, Friday. Twelve guests attended and prizes were won by Mrs. E. Clavey, Mrs. Alex Willman and Mrs. F. W. Russo.

Junior Corson of Browstown, Illinois is visiting his sister, Mrs. D. W. Meyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Gartley, Mrs. Hoffman and son, Andrew of Lake Bluff, Mrs. E. H. Willman and Kress Willman, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. Osterman of Northbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Horenberger and son Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Klemp and son Robert, of Highland Park, spent last week at Eagle River, Wisconsin.

Mr. W. A. Whiting and daughter, Mrs. Mildred Powers of Irving Park, were guests of Mrs. E. L. Clavey, Monday.

Misses Mary, Anne, and Ruth English of Evanston, were guests of Mrs. I. Brajd on Monday.

Mrs. Jack Myers and son Jack spent last week in Oshkosh, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schenk of Rushville, Illinois, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Muhle last week.

Mrs. J. Murray, who spent the past two months in New York City with her daughter has returned to her home on Central avenue.

Mrs. Harry Olendorf has been quite ill at her home on Hazel avenue.

Mrs. J. W. Strong and son left Saturday evening for New Rochelle, N. Y., where they will spend three weeks with relatives.

Mrs. Robt. Aiken and daughter, Patricia, of Austin, were luncheon guests of Mrs. R. E. Pettis on Thursday.

Mrs. G. Engstrom and family and Miss Evelyn Kent returned Friday evening from Marian, Iowa, where they spent the past week.

Miss Eleanor Meyer and Mrs. D. W. Meyer were hostesses at a bridge party at the Meyer home on Waukegan road, Tuesday afternoon.

The Deerfield Grammar school and the Wilmot school will open Monday, September 9. A list of books to be used in the Deerfield school will be published next week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Brynolson of Chicago were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Muhle on Friday.

Rev. and Mrs. F. G. Piepenbrok and family who have been vacationing for several weeks at Lake Tomahawk, Wisconsin, are expected home this week.

Mrs. W. J. Desmond of Deerfield road, will be hostess at a card party for the benefit of the Holy Cross church, at her home on Thursday afternoon.

Visitors at Louis L. Anderson residence Sunday, August 11, were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bennett of Oak Park, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Jeske of Maywood, Mr. and Mrs. H. King and Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Marquette Park, Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis L. Anderson and son returned last week from visiting Mrs. Anderson's sister at her summer home, Burlington beach, Valparaiso, Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Labahn are on a motor trip through Wisconsin.

Rev. and Mrs. A. P. Johnson and family, who recently returned from Winona Lake, Indiana, are attending the Barrington camp meetings. Mrs. M. Wessling and Miss Laura Wessling, Mr. and Mrs. Arno Frantz and family are also attending the meetings which are being held for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kynett Haehlen (Laurel Stryker), who have been visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stryker, for the past two weeks left for their home in Dysart, Ia., Monday. Mr. Haehlen will be principal of the Dysart Junior high school and Mrs. Haehlen will teach English in the Senior high school starting in September.

Mr. Morris Haehlen of Naperville, Ill. and Miss Viola Haehlen of Cedar Rapids, Ia., were also guests at the Stryker home last week.

Miss Allie Freeman of Horicon, Wisconsin was a house guest of Mrs. J. P. Freeman of Hazel avenue, last week. Miss Freeman attended the annual Wisconsin convention, American Legion Auxiliary held at Kenosha last week, she is also planning to attend the National Convention at Louisville, Kentucky.

Mrs. Alex Willman and son Kress are planning to leave the latter part of the week for Rutherford, N. J., where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kress, for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Miller have as their guests the former parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Miller of Palmyra, Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. W. Weaver of Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. J. Rommel was called to Ravenswood hospital Sunday, where her brother, L. F. Allardt is seriously ill.

The Deerfield Chapter No. 940, O. E. S. will entertain the Worthy Grand Matron, Sister Sarah Daniels, at the Masonic Temple on Thursday afternoon, September 5. A luncheon at 1 o'clock at the Presbyterian church will precede the meeting.

Mrs. J. A. Reichelt, Jr., was the guest of Mrs. Moses Smith of Chicago on Friday.

Mr. Christ Willman is enjoying a two weeks vacation.

Miss Ruth Soefker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Soefker, Mrs. Johnson and two children of County Line road, are expected to return home Thursday after a three weeks vacation at Iron Mountain, Michigan.

Miss Luella J. Willman, daughter of Mrs. C. Willman, spent the weekend with her grandmother, Grenning, at Glenview.

The Deerfield Fire Department was called to put out a grass fire on County Line Monday evening.

Miss Lydia Hinckley of Hinsdale was a guest of Miss Amelia Peterson on Friday and on Thursday Miss Clarice Addy of Chicago visited Miss Peterson.

Miss Rosetta Taylor was hostess at a shower at her home on Rosemary Terrace Friday evening to members of La Amitie Societe in compliment to Mrs. Le Roy Scully. Mrs. Scully was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. On a table gayly decorated delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Eugene Becker has her house guests, her sister, Miss Elizabeth Dempster and Miss Viola Ard of Foley, Alabama.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Juhrend and family have moved into their new home on Osterman avenue, and the Clyde Hatch family are moving in the George Antes house on Waukegan road, vacated by the Juhrend family.

Mr. and Mrs. Thayer Batt was given a surprise shower by a group of their friends at their home on Deerfield avenue, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. E. H. Selig is entertaining her sister, Mrs. J. Meurisse and two children of Dubuque, Iowa.

Mrs. C. E. Bates is visiting relatives in Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Freeman accompanied their guest Miss Allie Freeman to her home in Horicon, Wisconsin, Sunday.

Bobby Hoover celebrated his third birthday anniversary on Friday afternoon.

The annual church school picnic of Presbyterian church will be held Saturday September fourteenth at Sunset Park, Highland Park and members are urged to keep the date in mind.

The Ladies Aid society of St. Paul's Evangelical church will hold their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Ziener at Everett on Thursday afternoon, September 5th.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stryker have as their guests, Mr. Martin Wessling of Payton, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. R. Oltman and son Ralph of Pontiac, Illinois.

Two-Day Festival

Planned as Benefit

Plans are well under way for a two day festival to be held for the benefit of the building fund of Holy Cross church in the Jewett Grove on Friday and Saturday, September 6 and 7. Many beautiful prizes will be given away including two lots on Sheridan avenue, valued at 2,000. Refreshments will be served including sandwiches, coffee, cake, pie, baked ham and potato salad. Many other interesting features are being planned.

Hold Reunion August 11

A reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Horenberger, Sunday, August eleventh. Relatives and friends attended from Caledonia, Racine, Wis., Highland Park, Wilmette and Deerfield. The occasion was in honor of Mr. August Malfald of Wilmette, father of Mrs. Horenberger.

180 Attend Picnic

About one hundred and eighty former residents of Effingham county from Chicago, Arlington Heights Palatine and Deerfield attended the picnic held Sunday afternoon at Dam No. 1 on Des Plaines river. Those from Deerfield included Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Neville, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dobbins, Mr. and Mrs. O. Endebrock, Mrs. V. Merry and Mr. Harold Vant. The affair was voted a decided success and will be held annually.

To Move Soon

Mrs. J. Stoeck, who recently purchased the Rosemary Dress Shop on Waukegan road, is planning to move shortly into larger quarters next door, where she can, to better advantage, display her attractive line of hats and dresses.

Funeral of Well Known

Glencoe Woman Aug. 14

Funeral services for Mrs. Annis Barnes Northrop, who died suddenly August 11, at the family residence, 1144 Tower road, Winnetka, were held August 14, at the North Shore Methodist church, with Dr. A. E. Kirk of Winnetka officiating. Burial was at Memorial Park cemetery.

Mrs. Northrop had suffered from heart trouble for several years and her death was caused by a heart attack which came upon her suddenly as she was dressing at about 7 o'clock Sunday. Death was instantaneous.

Her husband, Judge Clark J. Northrop, and four grandchildren survive. The grandchildren are: Lee Northrop Hodson of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Walter Henry Hodson of Chicago; Elliott Wilford Hodson of Oak Park and Mrs. Clay T. Price of Saginaw, Mich.

The three grandsons, with a nephew, Lewis Denaul of Jamestown, S. Dak.; Charles Watson of Hubbard Woods and C. H. Weld of Glencoe, were the active pallbearers.

Mr. Wessly Stryker, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stryker who has been spending the summer in Trona, Calif., is expected home shortly.