

ELM PLACE SCHOOL OPENING SEPT. 9TH

for two years principal of the Junior high school at Whitewater Normal, comes to serve as assistant superintendent and carry part-time classroom work in the upper grades. Miss Bertha Mickelson, a graduate of St. Olaf's college, who has been teaching English in the Junior high school at Racine is to have classes in literature in the eighth grades. Miss Julia Price comes here from the Cicero schools to teach literature in the fifth grade. Miss Price is a graduate of the Charleston State Teacher's college and has had superior rating in the Cicero schools. Miss Marjorie Lynch, a graduate of the same college and with similar rating as a teacher, comes from the Pekin, Ill. schools. Her work will be in the third grade. Miss Bertha Baur of Terra Haute, Indiana, an outstanding member of the last graduating class at the Terra Haute Normal, is to teach history in grades five and six. Miss Irene Stark of Chicago, a graduate of National Kindergarten college and of the University of Illinois, will have charge of the kindergarten in the Green Bay school. Miss Galanda Benz of Milwaukee succeeds Miss Quick as supervisor of music and as her training and other preparation closely parallels that of Miss Quick, it is anticipated that she will meet with the same success that made her predecessor so valuable a member of the staff. Miss Katherine Pratt of the Milwaukee-Downer college with her home at DeKalb, Ill., is to teach sewing in grades five to eight inclusive. Miss Kathryn More who has been away the past year on leave of absence completing her university course at Northwestern returns to resume her work in the third grade.

Former Waukegan Man in Jerusalem Riot Zone

Fears for the safety of Ben Siegel, former well known resident of Waukegan and for many years connected with the Sam Eisenberg department store at 80 Tenth street, Waukegan, and who is now in the midst of the serious rioting in Jerusalem, are held by relatives in Waukegan.

Latest news dispatches state that 28 persons have been killed in the riots in Jerusalem between the Moslems and Jews and fears are held that the number will be greatly increased before the uprising is quelled. The Jews have the better of the situation, however, for 25 of the troublesome Arabs have been killed while but three Jews so far have fallen as victims in the riots, although many have been wounded or injured.

Mr. Siegel is U. S. Immigration agent in Jerusalem, a position that he has held for the past seven years.
