Deerfield Locals

Mrs. Harold Flower of Spokane, Washington, visited with Deerfield friends last Saturday. Mr. Flower was the architect for the Deerfield Bank building which was at that time the Anderson hotel. He also built the residence now occupied by the Bruggman family on Park avenue.

The Independent Social club met at the home of Mrs. Earl Frost on Tuesday.

Mrs. Whitcomb spent last week with her sons Irving and Leslie in Libertyville.

Mr. and Mrs. Berg Devine and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gunckle attended the wedding dinner at the Sullivan home in Highland Park following the marriage of Miss Agnes Sullivan, and Mr. Sam Lane of Bloomington Saturday evening.

Theodore Knaak and Bill Barrett are spending two weeks in Wisconsin, camping near Escanaba.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Frederick and family spent Sunday in Madison, Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith motored to Starved Rock, Peoria, and Springfield, last week.

High school opens Tuesday, September 3.

Elsie Ott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ott of Deerfield, was married Saturday afternoon, August 24, at five o'clock, to Trygve Nelson of Chicago, by the Rev. F. G. Piepenbrook, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical church. The bride's gown was white silk and she wore a wreath of orange blossoms, but no veil, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Her sister, Eleanor, was maid of honor and wore a pink gown and carried pink roses. Arthur Johnson served as best man. The decorations in the home were pink and white. Twenty-five guests of the immediate families were served at the wedding dinner. The young couple left for Niagara Falls for their honeymoon and will live in Chicago.

The parsonage of St. Paul's church has been reconstructed and rededicated and Rev. and Mrs. Piepenbrook returned from their vacation Wednesday.
