Nursery School Has Vacation
 The summer term of the Open Air Nursery school ended August 30. The school will be closed during September and reopen October 1. Miss Flora Levy, who is the director of the school will spend her vacation in York in Maine.

It is said that American visitors in Russia were very much impressed with the fact that the officials there get such small wages. Maybe that is the thing in Russia which makes a brotherly appeal to our college professors.

Some folks claim the modern school text books are wrong, and the pupils generally agree with them.

Announcement to Property Owners

A new service has been started in the North Shore area.

Its object is to help make properties more beautiful, and more comfortable—easier to rent and easier to sell.

This service organization is not-for-profit, is supported by responsible business men in the community, and is available to every owner or buyer who sincerely wishes his property (residential or business) to be modern in every respect.

Send for folder telling how this Bureau can be of service to you.
