Deerfield News

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peterson who have been living in the Boyle home are staying in a hotel in Chicago until their home in Briarwoods is completed.

Mrs. J. Rommel of Deerfield road, had as her guests on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rommel and family of two daughters, Janet and Ruth, of La Grange, Mr. and Mrs. Suggs of West Virginia, Mr. H. J. Allardt and Miss Vivian Patterson of Chicago, Mr. Perdue of Kentucky.

Miss Zelina Bennett of Highland Park will teach in the Grove school. The Deerfield R. N. A. will hold a regular meeting at the Masonic Temple on Thursday evening. A purse, a wedding gift will be presented to Mrs. Le Roy Scully (Hazel Easton).

Mrs. Martha Love and Miss Margaret Ludlow of Chicago spent Monday with Mrs. Julia Carroll of West Lake Forest.

Mrs. A. M. Gunckel of Highland Park who recently returned from a visit in Galesburg, Ill., visited her son Floyd on Monday.

Install Auxiliary Officers Monday Night

Mrs. Frances Mieczynski of North Chicago, eighth district committee woman American Legion auxiliary, installed the following officers of the Deerfield unit, American Legion Auxiliary, for the ensuing year at a regular meeting held at the home of Mrs. Chas. Frey on Monday evening, Sept. 9.

- President—Mrs. Harry Mau.
- First vice-president—Mrs. George Jacobs.
- Second vice-president—Mrs. Ralph Peterson.
- Secretary—Mrs. George Briggs.
- Treasurer—Mrs. Frank Jacobs, Jr.
- Sergeant-at-arms—Mrs. Ed. Jacobson.

The chaplain, Miss Louise Huhn, and historian, Mrs. W. Tennerman, were unable to attend the meeting on account of illness and will be duly installed at the next meeting.

Mrs. Alex Willman, the retiring secretary, was presented with a lovely gift in appreciation of services rendered.

The unit also presented a gift to Mrs. Mieczynski.

Following the ceremonies Mrs. Mieczynski gave an interesting talk on the work being done for Veterans' hospital by the units and emphasized the fact that while the government house, clothe and feed them the legion and auxiliary strive to give them a few personal things, individual attention, luxuries and entertainment with the hope of restoring them to health. She also told of the keen interest manifested by patients who took part in games at picnic on Sunday and how pleased they were with the prizes offered and eager to obtain them.

During the social hour which followed the meeting, delicious refreshments were served by hostesses, Mmes. Chas. Frey, Clarence Huhn and Miss Katherine Mau.

Missionary Society Meets

The Woman's Missionary society of the Evangelical Bungalow church held a regular meeting last Tuesday afternoon at the church. Mrs. E. Giss was hostess and Miss Edna Fritsch had charge of the lesson.

Worthy Grand Matron Night Is Observed

An occasion which will long be remembered as one of the high spots on the calendar of activities of the year for the Deerfield O. E. S. chapter was last Thursday, Sept. 5, when Mrs. Sarah Daniels, worthy grand matron, visited the chapter.

A delicious luncheon served at one o'clock at the Presbyterian church by Dorcas Circle No. 2 opened the program and was attended by fifty-three guests. Huge baskets of lovely flowers filled the Masonic temple where the ceremonies were performed in the afternoon.

Other grand officers who attended included Mrs. Pearl W. Palmer, Grand Ruth; Mrs. Grace W. Engelhardt, Grand Martha; Mrs. Lee Johnson, Grand Warder; Mrs. Eagle, Grand Lecturer, and Mrs. Vivian Scott, past worthy grand matron.

The inspiring talk given by Mrs. Daniels was greatly enjoyed. The chapter expressed their appreciation of Mrs. Daniels visit when they presented her with a lovely gift and a basket of flowers. Mrs. Scott was also presented with flowers.

The associate matron of local chapter, Mrs. Alvin Knaak, presented the Worthy Matron Mrs. Clarence Sherden with a gift.

In the evening a regular business meeting was held.

Plagge-Wessling Family Reunion

A reunion of the Plagge and Wessling families was held Labor day at Barrington park camp grounds. Relatives attended from Deerfield, Highland Park, Elgin, Berwyn, Wheaton, Oak Park, Northfield and Ames, Ia.

Much interest was shown in the tracing of a family tree, which is being conducted by Herbert Plagge, a teacher in the University of Iowa at Ames. Old photographs, letters, passports and interesting remembrances were brought out.

An enjoyable pot luck lunch was served.

It is hoped that this may become an annual affair.

Trap Shooters Hold Final Tourney Sunday

The final tournament of the Northern Illinois Trapshooter's league will be held at the Deerfield Gun club on Sunday, Sept. 15, one mile north of Deerfield on Waukegan road.

Over three hundred notices have been mailed out and a large number of shooters are expected to compete in the finals. There will be prizes for Class A, B and C shooters of the day and cups awarded to the winners of high scores of the entire season.

The previous league meetings have been well attended and owing to the keen competition, Deerfield expects a large crowd. Lunch will be served on the grounds.

Garden Club Meets

A regular meeting of the Garden Club of Deerfield will be held Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 18, at the home of Mrs. Irving Brand, Deerfield road. Mrs. C. E. Piper will be in charge of the program.
