FURNACE EFFICIENCY

Are you getting the right amount of heat from the quantity of coal you burn? Are you sure your furnace is right on the job? If you are not sure it is easy to find out if you will phone us to come and examine it. If there is anything wrong we can fix it. The cost will be trivial compared to the actual saving in heat and money.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS FROM LAKE COUNTY

Interesting Happenings About This Part of North Shore; County Seat

A fire of unknown origin destroyed a garage and seriously damaged the home of Herman Klein at Waukegan while the family was away last week.

Value of building permits issued during the last week totalled $40,400 according to a report issued from the office of the Waukegan city building commission.

Joseph Ingrish, 81 years old and a resident of Libertyville for thirty years, died in the St. Mary's hospital in Milwaukee last week following an operation. He was born in Germany and came to the United States at the age of 19 years.

Members of the Waukegan city council in meeting last week passed an ordinance setting the tax levy for the operation of all city departments for the ensuing year at the sum of $810,660.

The Salvation Army building in Waukegan, recently recommended by the city building commissioner, is to be replaced by a new three-story structure, according to Brigadier W. B. Sowers, divisional district commander. The new Salvation Army center is expected to cost in the neighborhood of $60,000.

John Fisher, a 63 year old bachelor and for 40 years a resident of Waukegan, died at the Lake County General hospital last week as a result of injuries which he received when he was struck by an auto.

The much hoped for paving of the Sheridan road culvert in Waukegan, together with the proposed plan for extending Sheridan road straight through to meet with South Genesee street, thereby avoiding the turn at Belvidere street, will not be carried out by the city until next spring, it is reported.

Three liquor raids were staged in Highwood last week by the sponge squad. Esther Cosolari, 235 Jefferson court, Highwood, and Rose Tangarroi, of 241 Ashland court, Highwood, paid $200 and costs each. Louis Mazette, who was raided also, had a hearing Saturday.

The hearing on the petition for an election to establish a Chain of Lakes conservancy district was continued by Judge Perry L. Persons in the County court until Oct. 3. The matter has been hanging over for several months and it is expected that it will be disposed of during the fall term of court.

The old fashioned boy who used to get a real thrill when he heard the cylinder record phonograph at the county fair has grown up and now has a son who won't even look up when he hears an airplane or a dirigible passing over head.
