Famous Band to Play in Chicago October 1

Lovers of band music will hear the national anthem played as it is played on state occasions at Washington when the United States Marine band, "the president's own," makes its first Chicago appearance at Orchestra hall Tuesday afternoon and evening, October 1, under the auspices of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs of the second congressional district. Both programs will conclude with a stirring rendition of "The Star Spangled Banner" in accordance with the immemorial custom of this organization, which is an outgrowth of the Revolutionary fife and drum corps.

Captain Taylor Branson, John Philip Sousa's successor as leader of this famous band, will introduce four soloists, Arthur S. Witcomb and John P. White, outstanding performers on the cornet; Robert E. Clark, trombonist, and Wilbur D. Kieffer, who is among the few xylophone soloists in America.

The afternoon program will include Richard Wagner's "Flying Dutchman" overture, a Victor Herbert intermezzo, "The Parade of the Gendarmes" from the opera, "In Monaco," a Massenet suite, "Neapolitan Scenes;" Saint-Saens' "Marche Heroique;" Chopin's "Grand Valse Brillante" and Liszt's "Hungarian Rhapsody."

Dvorak, Liszt, Giordano, Samuel Coleridge Taylor, Gottschalk and Johan Severin Svendsen are among the composers listed on the evening program.

Hints for Motorist

Under-inflation of tires materially increases the consumption of gas and oil. Soft tires impart a rolling motion to the car that makes resistance for the engine to overcome. Therefore it needs more fuel and lubrication.

If a fuse blows out and you have neglected to provide yourself with an extra one, wrap a piece of tinfoil around the blown-out member. It will work that way for a while—but get a new fuse as soon as possible. A package of cigarettes, a bar of chocolate or a cake of yeast will furnish the tinfoil.

In a country theatre an opera was being produced, and in certain passages of the overture a trumpet had to be blown off-stage for effect.

But great was the conductor's consternation when, as the first climax came, there was no sound of the trumpet. Much annoyed, he continued till the second climax was reached. Still the trumpet was silent.

When the overture was finished, the conductor rushed to the wings. There he found the trumpeter still arguing with a stage hand.

"I tell you, you can't play that thing here," asserted the latter in angry tones. "There's a show going on!"

"It makes me shudder to hear the woman next door driving nails."

"But the noise is trifling."

"You don't understand. She just came over and borrowed my silver-backed hairbrush."
