

Local and Personal

Miss Josephine Hood Faxon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Faxon of Sheridan road became the bride of Richardson Revell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Revell of Chicago in a home wedding at 4:30 Saturday afternoon in the presence of relatives and close friends. A reception at Exmoor Country club followed the ceremony. Miss Faxon was charming in an egg shell satin gown fashioned in princess lines and wore a tulle veil gathered into a cap of rose-point lace adorned with a small calla lily and she carried an arm sheaf of calla lillies. Mrs. Joseph Lane, a sister of the bride was matron of honor and Miss Priscilla Colt of Pittsfield, Mass., a class mate at Dobbs Ferry was maid of honor. They both wore vivid green princess gowns with hats and slippers to match and carried bronze chrysanthemums. The flower girls little Joan Revell and Lorraine Hoover were cunning in little Paris frocks of peach colored chiffon and carried baskets of autumn flowers. Alexander H. Revell, Jr., served his brother as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Revell will reside in Highland Park.

Mr. Milton Tillman returned home from the Wesley hospital, Chicago, last week, where he underwent an operation three weeks ago. His condition is very much improved.

Mrs. O. Schmidley and daughter and Miss Mary and Miss Emma Keller, motored to Rochester, Minn., last week.

Mrs. Perkins and Miss Elizabeth Bond of Boston, relatives of Mrs. Irving Conrad of Evanston, together with Mr. and Mrs. Irving Conrad, were the guests on Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Conrad, of McGovern street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nolan of Seattle, Wash., are spending a few weeks visiting relatives and friends here. They have been spending some time in Boston, visiting relatives and will return this week, later going on to Seattle.

Mrs. Edward M. Conrad will entertain the members of her Friday Night bridge club tomorrow at her home on Laurel avenue. There will be two tables.

Mrs. Fred Fisher, Sr., was pleasantly surprised when a party of relatives and neighbors came in to congratulate her on her birthday, Saturday, October 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Tillman entertained a large company of relatives and friends at four-thirty dinner on Sunday in celebration of their thirteenth wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Karl of Central avenue, went to Dennison, Iowa, on Friday, to attend the funeral of a relative. They returned home Mon-

Mrs. E. E. Farmer who is ill in the Alice Home hospital, Lake Forest, is getting along as nicely as can be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Leshar entertained a number of relatives at a dinner on Tuesday in celebration of their tenth wedding anniversary.

The Young Woman's club of the Presbyterian church met on Tuesday with Miss Gladys Greenlaw. Miss Esther Huckins of the National Board of Y. W. C. A. addressed the girls and told them interesting events and experiences she had abroad and through the Orient. A trip from which she has just recently returned. She had photographs to illustrate her talk.

Mr. R. B. Swazey and daughter Phoebe are in Mount Carroll, Illinois, where they went to visit Mary Swazy, who is attending Frances Sheimer school there.

Mr. J. M. Davidson of Glencoe avenue, is in New York, with his mother.

Mrs. Roswell B. Swazey is expected to return home Monday from the east where she went with Billy who entered Choate school.

Mr. David Thomas will return this week from Cleveland, Ohio, and next week he, with his family, will move to Shaker Heights, Cleveland to make their home there, Miss Myra will remain in Highland Park and Miss Betty will remain in Chicago.

Mrs. George Bahr was hostess yesterday at a very pretty one o'clock luncheon. Covers were laid for eight guests and bridge was the pleasure of the afternoon.

Mrs. Robert Slayback entertained eight out of town guests at luncheon and bridge on last Wednesday. The guests were all friends from Waukegan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bell and family motored to Nelson Dewey Park and Apple River, Wisconsin on Saturday and spent the week end there.

Chindblom to Speak at Waukegan Oct. 5

Led by an honorary guard of Waukegan mail carriers and the high school band, Edison Square merchants and local post office employes marched from the central post office Saturday afternoon through the business section of Waukegan and then the new Edison Square branch post office where Congressman Carl Chindblom made the chief address dedicating the new station.

Edison Square merchants entered a number of elaborate floats in the parade. Congressman Carl Chindblom, Postmaster Talcott and civic leaders took part in the parade.

Many of the schools are reported crowded, but there is always room at the head of the classes.

TEMPLE

TEMPLE TONE

Radio

FLICK the switch and dial the number . . . Temple is the switchboard that links you with a wonder-world of words and music.

Its magnificent power conquers difficulty and distance. Its uncanny selectivity impales each station on a needle point. It is consoled in beauty. Its tone is beyond compare in all radio.

Temple ought to be your set . . . let us prove this.

Haak's Auto Supply Co.

25 South Second Street

Telephone Highland Park 391