ed of fire hazards and in his effort to get the city placed in a better insurance classification. He reported that the per capita loss through fires in this city in the last year was only 84 cents, and part of the credit for this low average he attributed to the clean condition of business houses.

Nominating Committee

A nominating committee of seven members was elected to select candidates for president, vice-president and three directors for two years, to be voted on at the November meeting. Their report is to be filed in the office of the Chamber not later than November 12. The members of the committee are W. J. Brown, Herman Denzel, Walter Meierhoff, William Dooley, J. B. Garnett, E. W. Gsell, Gus Klomp.

Bills amounting to $62.50 were ordered paid after being properly audited, and a check for $200 was ordered sent to the Ravinia Opera Co., that amount being the Chamber's donation to the guaranteed fund for the opera project.

Endorse Y. W. Drive

It was regularly moved and seconded that the Chamber go on record as endorsing the annual Y. W. C. A. drive for funds, which starts October 28, and on motion of Lyle Gourley, the body voted to accept the invitation of the Y. . to hold the November meeting of the Chamber in the Y. W. building, as guests of the association.

One must have satisfactory prices and the best in candy quality to show increasing patronage like ours—and even more, in order to please the discriminating people who come into our new shop in the Woman's Athletic Club, Chicago.

So we have collected there the smartest of modern candy containers for gifts and occasions: Russian enameled wood, Bohemian glass, Florentine leather boxes, Danish porcelain, English trug baskets, and, of course, American things like Hull House pottery.
