"Home First" With State Clubwomen

BACK TO HOME MAKING, IS CLUB WOMAN'S ADVICE

"The woman nowadays who doesn't put up preserves isn't a real home maker."

Take it from Mrs. Natalie Pegram of Lincoln, president of the seventeenth district, Illinois Federation of Women's clubs.

"The coat of arms for the modern housewife should be a jar of fruit or vegetables and a pressure cooker in the center against a home background, with a bridge deck in just one corner," said Mrs. Pegram.

"The job of women has become so easy that time hangs heavy on their hands. There are so many things they can do that it is a pity when they neglect the real American accomplishments of other generations.

And Mrs. Pegram should know, for besides her club work, she is manager of a laundry in Lincoln. She is active in political affairs, she has stored away nearly five hundred jars of preserves since the canning season. She is showing Mrs. Grace Via Gray, president of the first district of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs, the jar of peaches she entered in the national canning contest in Chicago, in which 25,000 women and girls are competing for prizes.
