Engine Tender Is in Hospital; Neck Injured

Walter T. Glay, employed as engine tender by the Northwestern railroad here, about midnight Sunday, suffered from what was described as a badly sprained neck. His home is in DesPlaines, the police understand.

The American people should not get so excited over the celebration of Fire Prevention Week, that they forget to extinguish the matches thrown into the wastebaskets.

Mrs. Caroline Meintzer Passes Away Oct. 9

Mrs. Caroline Trute Meintzer died at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Trute on Second street, Wednesday evening, October 9.

Mrs. Meintzer was born in Chicago, Jan. 11, 1889, and lived there until April 28, 1905, when she came to reside in Deerfield with her parents.

November 30, 1907, she married Jacob Meintzer of Deerfield. They had five children, Earl, (died at the age of three months;) Elvira, Vernon, Lowell and Willard.

Mrs. Meintzer was the daughter of Ferdinand, who died in 1918, and Mary Trute.

Early in the summer Mrs. Meintzer was taken ill and it wasn't long before her condition became serious and she was moved to the home of her mother, where her sister Josephine who is a nurse at St. Joseph's hospital, Chicago, came home to nurse her and while the best of care and comfort was provided yet the hope of her recovery soon faded and she passed away on Wednesday.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a. m. Saturday, October 12, at Holy Cross church with the Rev. C. L. McDonough officiating. Interment was in the Mooney cemetery, Highland Park.

Mrs. Meintzer leaves to mourn, her husband, four children, three sisters, Mrs. Frances Goranson, Mrs. Leo Wenzel of Chicago, Miss Josephine Trute, two brothers Otto and Ferdinand, Jr., of Deerfield.

Real Estate Board to Meet October 21

The next regular monthly dinner of the North Shore Real Estate Board will be held at the Green Tea Pot in Highland Park on Monday, October 21, at 6:30 p.m. sharp.

There will be interesting reports from the various convention committees, and other discussions regarding convention.
