Bethany Evangelical Church
H. F. Siemsen, Pastor
A. A. Haag, Assistant Pastor

We were very happy on Sunday to welcome to our midst the Rev. Mr. Alvin A. Haag of the Evangelical Theological Seminary of Naperville, Illinois. Mr. Haag has become the pastor's assistant at the Bethany church, and will be here over each Sunday to assist in the work of the local congregation. He will pay special attention to the work of the Junior church which is being organized, and the work of our young people. Mr. Haag is a splendid young man with many pleasing characteristics in his personality, he already has made many friends, and we feel quite sure that he will be very successful in his work in our community.

The W. M. S. is entertaining a large group of ladies from near by Evangelical churches today. Special speakers appear on the program both morning and afternoon.

Car of Apples to Arrive Here Soon

Another indication that autumn is with us, notwithstanding our very pleasant weather conditions, is the statement which comes from John Western, president of the Bay-Lake Fruit Farms, that the first car of apples for this season will arrive within a few days, due notice of the arrival will be given in the business locals. According to Mr. Western the reports concerning the production of apples in the various fruit sections of the country indicate that the total crop of this year will be below the average.
