CO-OPERATE WITH HIGHLAND PARK BUSINESS MEN

BUSINESS conditions fluctuate sectionally and seasonally. The bank's adding machines and books give totals which have significance to the banker whose business cuts across general business.

It is of great advantage to the business man to have an interpretation of such information from an experienced banker. Banking is something more than receiving deposits, paying checks and making loans. Our services extend much further than that and our information, available to our customers, makes a connection with this bank very much worth while.
