

Among the Local Churches

Redeemer Lutheran Church
 Rev. W. F. Suhr, Pastor
 45 North Green Bay Road
Reformation Sunday
 Sunday school, 9:30.
 German service, 10:30.
 English service, 11:00.

The 31st of October is the actual date of Reformation day, the birthday of the Protestant church. On the coming Sunday the pastor will preach on a subject in keeping with the idea of the Reformation. A weekly Bible Hour will be conducted from now on every Wednesday evening at 8. All members of the church are urged to attend these instructions.

On Thursday evening of this week the Ladies' Aid is giving a supper at our church beginning at 5:30.

Thursday evening is the regular date for the meeting of the Luther league. Since the Ladies' Aid are occupying our parish house, the meeting of the Luther league will take place at the Y. W. All members are urged and guests are invited to attend this social gathering. The collection at our Mission Festival amounted to about $230, a larger offering than last year. Those absent from church last Sunday may bring their contribution this Sunday.

The Swedish Methodist Church
 Highwood Avenue and Everts Place
 William W. Nelson, Pastor

Sunday, October 27: 10:30 a. m.—Sunday school; 6:00 p. m.—Epworth league meeting. The District Cabinet will be with us at this time and will have charge of the meeting; 7:45 p. m.—Evening service in English. A special invitation is extended to the young people of our community to attend this service. Members of the District Epworth league cabinet will speak. Everyone, whether young or old, is invited to worship with us at this hour. Welcome!

The Industrial class meets on Monday and Friday evenings at 7 o'clock. The English language class meets on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 7:45 o'clock.

First United Evangelical Church
 Rev. C. G. Unangst, Pastor
 Phone, Highland Park 1731

The Victorious Life meetings started off well on last Sunday. Rev. D. E. Luttrell said that he had had no meeting in his experience that had opened with so much blessing and interest. It is evident that people want the joy and peace that is for them in Christ. The Monday evening service was exceptionally good. Quite a number are entering a larger life of spiritual freedom and satisfaction.

Rev. Luttrell will assist Pastor C. G. Unangst during this week and on next Sunday. The services begin promptly at 7:45 p. m. during the week. Meetings of boys and girls are being held every afternoon after school, except Saturday and Sunday. The service on Friday evening of this week will be of particular interest to the young people of high school age. They will do well to plan to be present.

D. E. Luttrell will preach on Sunday at 10:45 a. m.
 Mr. George Ellis, of Chicago, once

a member of the largest infidel club in America, will speak on Sunday evening. His coming to Highland Park will be an event in the realm of matters that are intellectual, moral and spiritual. The service will begin at 7:30 p. m. Come early. Tell your friends about this particular service.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul White, radio singers, are directing the singing. They are also having charge of the meetings for the boys and girls.

All of the services are prayerfully arranged so as to be of the highest spiritual value to old and young. The elements of joy, brightness and good cheer prevail. The only secret of deliverance from doubt, fear, anxiety, restlessness and discontent is being preached and taught. Private interviews are encouraged. Friends from some of our neighbouring towns are attending. Having discovered the value of the meetings, they are coming again and again.

The Sunday school will meet at 9:30 a. m. and the title of the Bible lesson should in itself interest the people. It is, "Christian Liberty Through Christ." Mark 2:18-28. Note the other references suggested in the lesson helps. Splendid singing and a profitable time for all. Parents come and bring your children.

Joseph Redine will lead the Christian Endeavor meeting at 6:45 p. m. Topic, "What Is Worship?" Ps. 95:1-6; John 4:20-24.

Suggestions for thinking people: "The wisest man came yesterday and will be gone tomorrow. Let the Word of God be your guide."

"Paul forgot because God forgave—but your past is like a log chain about your neck."

"Prayer will put you clear over the house-top of your enemies. What are you doing?"

"Surrender is not the giving up of many things, but a turning of one person over to another person. That Person is Jesus Christ."

Highland Park Presbyterian Church
 Laurel and Linden Avenues
 Rev. Frank Fitt, Minister

Church phones, H. P. 683 and 46
 Friday: 7:00—The Camp Fire Girls' meeting will be held at seven o'clock in the camp fire room at 176 Laurel avenue. All girls interested are invited to attend. Mrs. Carl McManus, guardian; 7:15—Boy Scout meeting in the junior room of the parish house.

Sunday: 9:00—Girls' choir rehearsal in the church; 9:45—Church school; 11:00—Morning worship. The pastor will preach; 4:30—Organ recital. Mr. Palmer Christian one of the foremost organists of the country will play. The public is cordially invited; 7:00—Young People's society meeting. Do you have any blind spots in your vision? The book "Blind Spots" tells us we have. Let us try to overcome them by attending the Y.P.S. meeting for the next four weeks. Miss Greenlaw will lead these discussions.

Wednesday: 7:00—Girls' choir rehearsal in the junior room of the parish house; 7:45—Church night. The special study on great art which follows the prayer and praise service will be on the Last Supper by Davinci.

Bethany Evangelical Church
 H. F. Siemsen, Pastor
 A. A. Haag, Assistant Pastor
 Our services were well attended on Sunday, which was much appreciated by all who are interested in the work of the church.

The second chapter of Matthew will be the basis of discussion in our next Wednesday evening service.

A Baked Ham Dinner is being served at the church dining hall this evening, Thursday, October 24, between 5:30 and 7:30.

The choir will have its regular rehearsal on Thursday evening.

Our Sunday school will begin at 9:45 next Sunday morning. We invite not only the boys and girls to come, but we urge the parents to come also. Adult education is being stressed to a great degree at present among religious educators, and we are agreed that much good can be accomplished if parents will attend a Bible class each Sunday morning.

Next Sunday will be known as "Commitment Sunday." It is hoped that through the morning service many will be led to take a forward step in their religious experience and in their responsibility in the great work of Kingdom building.

A new feature will be introduced on Sunday afternoon. Our choir will present their first Vesper service. This vesper will begin at 4:30 p. m. The choir has prepared the splendid Cantata entitled "Faith and Praise" by John A. West. Music lovers will not need an urgent invitation to attend this service. The message of the Cantata itself is sufficient to make its appeal to those who are interested in the Gospel in song.

A "Colored Quartette" will be with us on Sunday evening November 3. They will present many of the negro "Spirituals" and other familiar songs in their own characteristic way.

A "Father and Son" banquet is being planned for the latter part of November. Fathers are urged to bring a boy to this function.

Trinity Episcopal Church
 Rev. Christoph Keller, Rector
 East Laurel Avenue

Services
 Sunday, October 27, twenty-second Sunday after Trinity.
 7:30 a. m.—Holy communion.
 9:30 a. m.—The church school.
 11:00 a. m.—Morning prayer and sermon.
 Monday, October 28, S. Simon and S. Jude:

9:30 a. m.—Holy communion.
 Friday, November 1, All Saints day:
 9:30 a. m.—Holy Communion.

Holy Cross Church
 Rev. C. L. McDonough, pastor

Masses 8 and 10 o'clock Sunday.
 Morning high mass at 10 o'clock.
 Children's instruction classes every Saturday morning.
 Confessions Saturday evening between 7 and 9 o'clock.
 Services during the month of October every Wednesday, Friday and Sunday evenings at 8 o'clock.
 Choir rehearsal Monday and Friday evenings, 7:30.

First Church of Christ, Scientist
 Highland Park, Ill., 381 Hazel avenue, a branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., holds services every Sunday morning at 10:45 and on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, when testimonies of Christian Science healings are given. Sunday school meets at 9:30 a. m., and is open to pupils between the ages of four to twenty.

Subject for next Sunday's lesson: Sermon, "Probation After Death."

You are cordially invited to make use of the reading room, 361 Central avenue, which is open every week day from nine in the morning until six in the evening and on Wednesdays until 7:30. The reading room is also open on Sunday afternoon from 2:30 to 5:30.

St. Paul's Evangelical Church
 F. G. Piepenbrook, pastor
 Church school—9:15 a. m.

Worship service—10:30 a. m.
 Concert—8:00 p. m.

Friday evening the young people of the church will gather for a hard time social at the Deerfield Grammar school auditorium. Eighty-three invitations have been sent out and we are anticipating a good attendance. Mr. Noble Nagler and Miss June Fellows will have charge of the entertainment.

There will be no choir rehearsal Friday evening on account of the social affair at the grammar school.

Sunday evening the "L. L. L." club will sponsor the first of a series of concerts at the St. Paul's Evangelical church. This first concert will feature Miss June Fellows as reader, impersonator and pianist; Mr. Donald S. Fleming, tenor, and Mr. Noble C. Nagler, cornetist. The concert will begin at eight o'clock. No admission charge, only a free will offering. The public is cordially invited.

Coming next month, the Elmhurst College Glee club.

Basketball practice has started this week. The boys will practice every Tuesday and Friday evenings and the girls every Wednesday evening.

On the first Sunday of November we will have Reformation day services and celebration of the Lord's Supper.

Deerfield Presbyterian Church
 Mark J. Andrews, pastor

9:30—Church school. Departmental organization. Graded instruction.

10:45—Worship and sermon. This Sunday will be observed as Reformation Sunday.

7:30—School of missions. Three study groups: Junior, young people, adults.

Wednesday, 7:45 p. m.—Choir rehearsal.

Friday, Nov. 1—The Scout meeting will be omitted. The senior-young people group will hold a Halloween party in the social room of the church. All young people of the Tuxis-Young People group are cordially invited to attend.

You are invited to all the services and activities of this church.

(Continued on page 50)