St. James Catholic church was the scene of a very attractive wedding yesterday morning, October 30, at ten o'clock when Miss Anne Josephine Muzik, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vencil Muzik became the bride of Mr. Francis John Kerrigan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kerrigan of Lake Forest. Father Martin E. Muzik of Chicago, a brother of the bride performed the ceremony with a solemn nuptial Mass. The children of the choir which Miss Anna directed, sang. The bride was charming in an eggshell satin gown with a French tulle veil caught in cap effect and trimmed with orange blossoms, she carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and lillie of the valley. The maid of honor was Miss Grace Mulholland of Chicago who wore a golden brown frock and a large picture hat to match and carried chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids, Eleanor Flannigan wore a gown of rose pink, and Doras Higgins wore Nile green and both carried bridesmaids bouquets of chrysanthemums to match their gowns. Little Dorothy Muzik, the four-year-old daughter of

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Muzik, was flower girl and wore a cunning little pink silk frock and carried a basket of flowers. William Gannon of Lake Forest served as best man while Philip Muzik and Herbert Garry, also of Lake Forest, were part of the wedding party. The ushers were Paul Lloyd and Vencil Muzik, Edward Engquist and Leonard Steffen. After the services a delightful wedding breakfast was served to one hundred guests in the parish hall.
