

Local and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. W. McGuinness are leaving November 1 to motor to California where they will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Leverone are in the east where they attended the Dartmouth-Harvard game last Saturday. They will also go to the Yale-Dartmouth game.

Eight couples delightfully surprised Mr. and Mrs. Howard Moran last Saturday evening in honor of their wedding anniversary. The evening was spent in playing cards.

Mrs. Marshall Sampson entertained the Highland Park branch of the Northwestern university settlement at luncheon yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Butterfield of S. Second street are leaving for the south this week to spend five of the winter months. They will tour the southern states for six weeks and will remain the rest of the time in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Miss Tessie McClory and nephew Mr. Leo Hart motored to Champaign last Saturday and attended the Illinois-Michigan game.

Mrs. Effie Fritsch who recently underwent an operation at the hospital has returned to her home very much improved.

Mrs. H. C. Siljeström will entertain her bridge club tomorrow evening (Friday).

Mrs. Ingram C. Rasmussen entertained a few friends at luncheon yesterday for Mrs. McGuinness who is leaving soon for the west to spend the winter.

Dorothy Himmler entertained the Camp Fire girls at a Hallowe'en party last Friday evening. All sorts of Hallowe'en games were played. Decorations were in keeping with the season.

Mr. and Mrs. John Larson entertained members of their immediate families and a few close friends last Saturday evening in commemoration of their wedding anniversary. About twenty were present.

Mr. L. R. Rigdon of Galesburg was in town and in Waukegan this week as witness in an automobile accident case.

Mrs. C. L. Hamilton of 132 S. First street has as her guest this week Mrs. Floyd D. Lindsey and son, Douglas, of Omaha, Neb.

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Murison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Murison and Edward Otis Brown is to take place on the afternoon of November 16 at the residence of the bride's parents. Only members of the immediate families will be present at the ceremony, which is to be followed by a reception at 4:30 o'clock at the Fortnightly.

Robert White entertained a number of his young friends at a Hallowe'en party last Saturday evening at his home on Melody road, Lake Forest.

During the past week several farewell parties have been given in compliment to Miss Minnie Yahnke who leaves next week with Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Rebling to spend the winter in the south. Last Wednesday, Mrs. John Payden of Chicago entertained ten friends at luncheon followed by cards, Friday Mrs. Walter Merkle of Chicago entertained at luncheon and a matinee. Sunday Mrs. John Richter and Miss Elizabeth Yahnke entertained twelve at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Rebling and Miss Yahnke.

Mr. W. P. Hunter and Mr. Oscar Lundgren spent this week on a hunting trip in South Dakota.

At least fifty Highland Parkers motored to Champaign Friday afternoon and Saturday to witness the Illinois-Michigan game.

Mrs. Constant C. Hopkins entertained the Highland Park committee of the North Shore Theatre Guild at luncheon yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Erickson attended the wedding of Miss Mary West of Forest Park and Mr. Paul Weber of this city in Forest Park, Saturday.

Chester Wakefield of Lake avenue graduated last week from the Air-Tech school of aviation at Lindbergh field, San Diego, California. He is now a license pilot.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bingham of 612 North Sheridan road, gave a buffet dinner, Friday evening in honor of their guest, Miss Helen Daniels. During the evening Miss Daniels gave a charming program of songs in French, Italian and English.

She has recently completed a successful opera season at Convent Gardens, London, which was preceded by an engagement in Australia with the opera company sponsored by Dame Nellie Melba. She remained in Melbourne and Sidney, Australia at the close of the opera season. She made a successful tour of many of the other Australian cities. Miss Daniels is sailing on the Leviathan, Nov. 2 for a concert tour in England. She sings under the name of Ellena Danieli.

Little Johnny Gibson of Orchard Lane is entertaining a number of his small friends at a Hallowe'en party at his home today.

DEDICATE MEMORIAL CLOCK ON NOV. 6TH

(Continued from page 1)

of Education for district 108 and as the only woman member rendered a distinct and exceptional service. She had been president of the Parent-Teacher association and had worked actively on a number of its committees. She was chosen as one of three women to serve as an advisory committee for the present high school board of education. More recently she had been chairman of a local committee on co-operation with the war veterans and had been doing special work at Great Lakes.

She was a member of the Highland Park Presbyterian church, a member and former officer of the Dorcas society. She was regent of the North Shore chapter of the D. A. R. from 1922 to 1924 and president of the Highland Park Woman's club from 1925 to 1927. She was also a member of the Ossoli club and had served as a director on its board. She also was an active member of the Visiting Nurses association.

ANNOUNCEMENT!!

BEGINNING NOVEMBER 1, 1929, WE WILL CONDUCT THIS BUSINESS ON A

CASH AND CARRY BASIS

Heretofore we have carried many accounts on our books and we are installing this system to eliminate considerable bookkeeping. This will not only benefit the market but the customers as well—as witness the following:

Specials

California Oranges, 3 doz. 99c

Tub Butter the pound 45c

Armour's Star Bacon whole or 1/2 lb. 30c

Armour's Star Ham whole or 1/2 lb. 26c

Fresh Dressed Chickens pound 35c

Pork Loin Roast pound 27c

100-pound bags Michigan Potatoes $3.50

We Carry a Full Line of Fresh Vegetables and Groceries

The SERVICE MARKET

395 North Avenue

Phone Highland Park 2450