"The Four Feathers" a Dramatic Picture

The background of the story is laid in the wilds of Africa by a number of dramatic and amusing scenes with wild animals.

A superb cast, William Powell, Richard Arlen, Noah Berry, Clive Brook and Fay Wray play the leading roles and do them with rare taste and tact. The story is based on the famous novel of British soldier life in the Sudan "The Four Feathers." A young officer is branded as a coward by his comrades. He swears he will "come back" and he does. It would be an idle waste of words to try to describe "The Four Feathers" in detail here. It can only be said that here is one of the most magnificent, ones of the most thrilling films. The picture is really very good entertainment and one of the finest films of the year.

"The Four Feathers" comes to the Alcyon theater Wednesday, Thursday and Friday next week.
