Not merely are the freshmen being thrown over the school fence, but congress is trying to throw the American people over the tariff wall.

Much trouble is experienced in marketing the farm products, excepting of course applesauce, which is constantly in demand.

Brief News Items

The first of the Christmas events for the less fortunate children of Waukegan district to be announced is that planned at the Great Lakes Naval station in which Admiral and Mrs. W. S. Crosley of the naval station will be the hosts to one hundred orphaned children from Waukegan, North Chicago and the Lake Bluff orphanage.

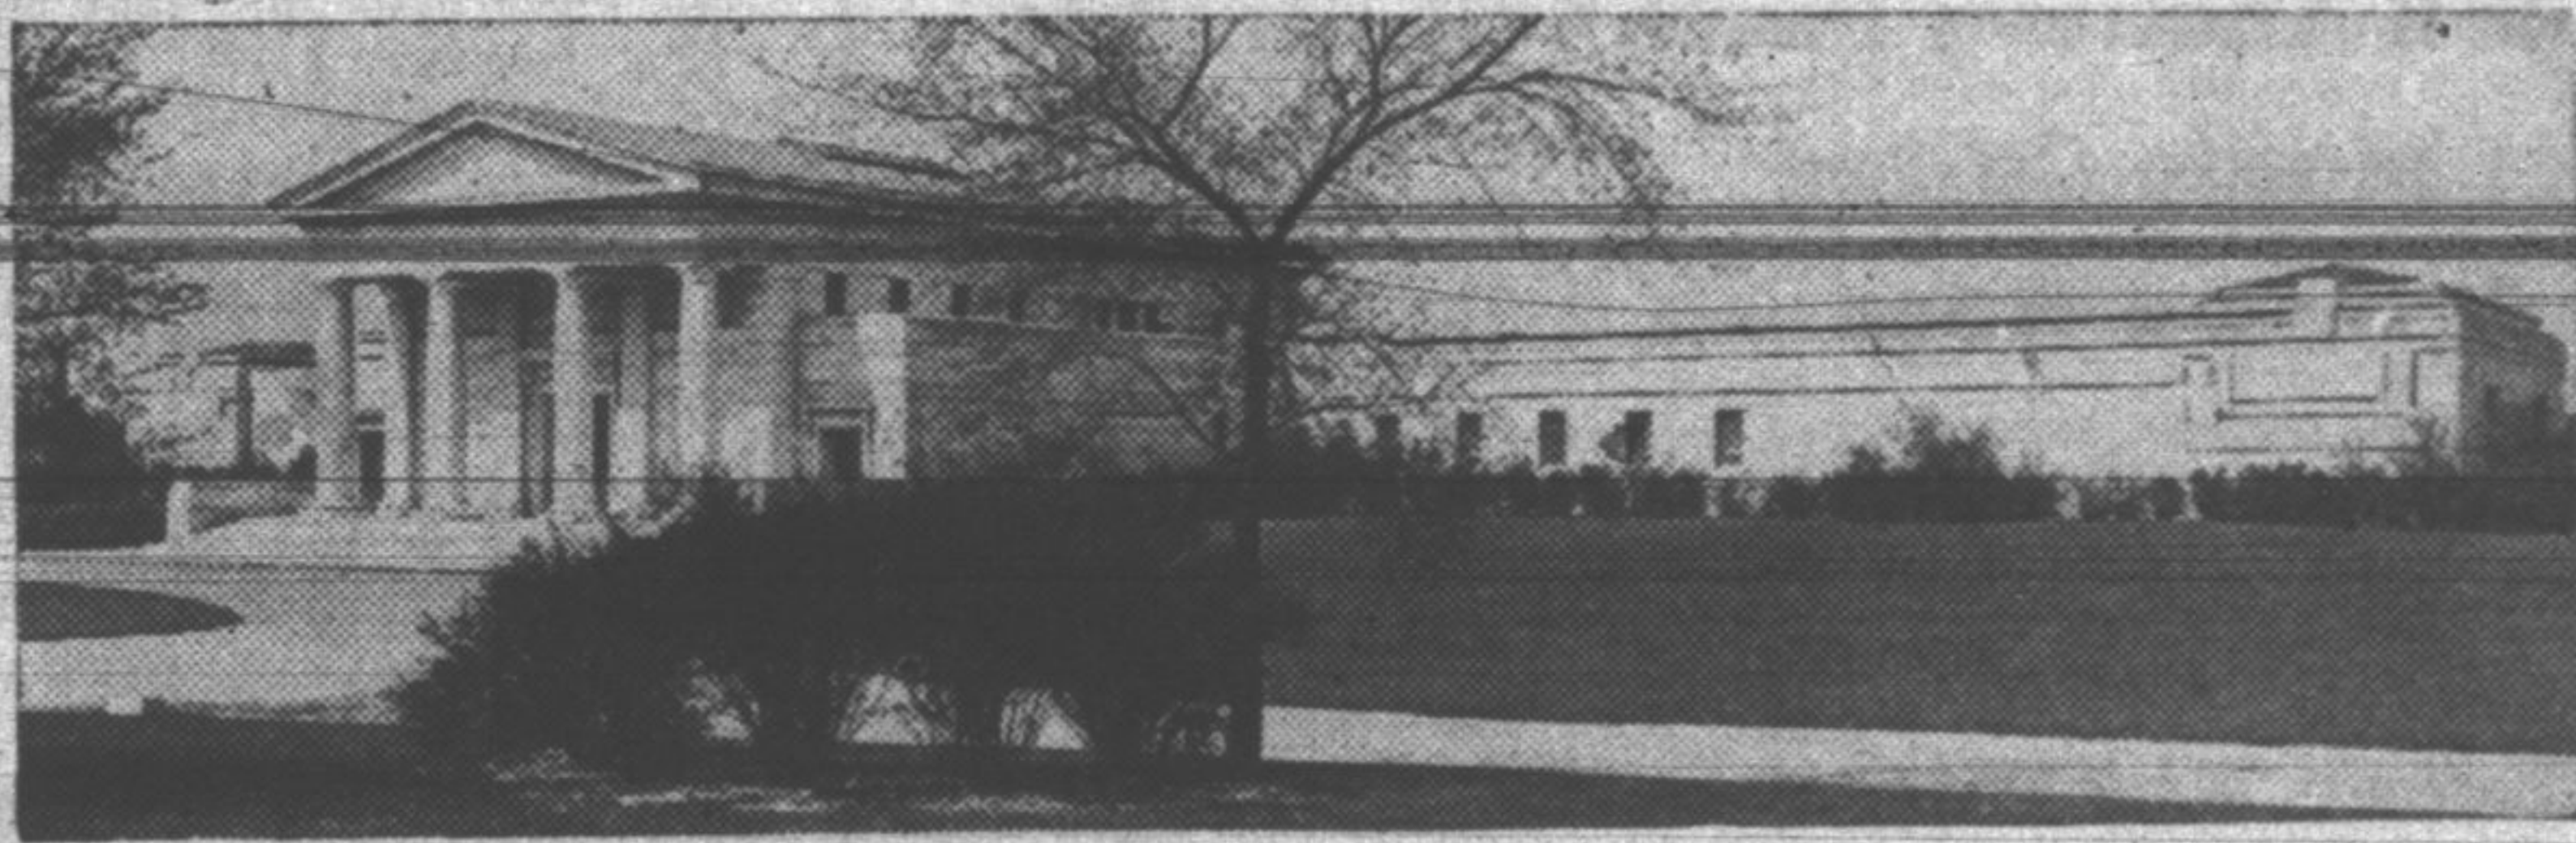

Visitors at the North Shore cemetery of late have been amazed at the enormous quantities of roses in full bloom, despite the inclement weather that has occurred from time to time. This morning there were more than one thousand blooms in addition to a large number of buds that should bloom if weather is favorable.

F. H. Reynolds, president of the First State bank of Zion and well known in that community, died at his home, 5968 Superior street, Chicago, last week. He leaves a widow and two daughters. He was former treasurer for Marshall-Field & company.
