

DEERFIELD NEWS-FLASHES

Deerfield News and Personal Items

Send contributions to local correspondent before Tuesday noon. Help her to make this section interesting.

MRS. LORETTA WILLMAN, Local Editor

Lincoln Ave., Deerfield, Ill.

Tel. Deerfield 153-R

Deerfield football team scored a 0-0 tie with Highwood football team on Sunday afternoon at Highwood.

Marilyn Gooder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Gooder entertained a group of friends at a costume Halloween party on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Alex Willman was hostess at a bridge-luncheon in compliment to Mrs. W. A. Whiting and Mrs. Mildred Powers of Irving Park on Thursday.

The Deerfield Parent-Teacher association will sponsor a card party, which will be held in the school auditorium on Friday evening, November 15, at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mmes. George Briggs, Alex Willman and Harry Mau attended a school of instruction for officers and committee chairmen of eighth district American Legion auxiliary held at the home of Mrs. Harry Brown, eighth district committee woman, on Wednesday afternoon.

Bobby Bendt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Bendt of Hazel avenue, is ill with scarlet fever.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Vinyard are contemplating a trip to California in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clavey were hosts at a bridge party at their home on Saturday evening. Twelve guests attended.

Mrs. Eugene Ender, Miss Clara Ender and Mrs. J. C. Ender were guests of Mrs. W. Hanselman of Chicago Wednesday.

Mrs. J. Stoeck has organized Merchandise club at the Rosemary shop on Waukegan road.

On Friday afternoon, November 8, the Dorcas society will hold a bazaar shower at the Presbyterian church.

Almon Frost, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Frost of Osterman avenue, celebrated his eighth birthday anniversary on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Eggert and family, who have been residing in the Warner home on Deerfield avenue for the past four months, have returned to their home in Chicago.

The Independent Social club will be entertained by Mrs. A. J. Johnson on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 12, at her home on Osterman avenue.

The pupils of the Wilmot school enjoyed a Halloween party at the school on last Thursday afternoon.

The Ladies' Aid society of St. Paul's Evangelical church will hold regular meeting at the home of Mrs. W. Steinhaus on Thursday, Nov. 7.

Mrs. Grace Cotrell of Todd court will entertain her luncheon-bridge club on next Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller and two sons of Milwaukee were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Youngs.

Mrs. Coffee, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Strong for the past six weeks, returned to her home in New Rochelle, N. Y., Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Whitcomb, Mr. and Mrs. George Harder and son, Melvin, visited Wilbur Whitcomb, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Whitcomb of Barrington, who is ill with pneumonia at the Frances Willard hospital, Chicago.

The Ladies' Get-together club will be entertained by Mrs. Minnie Whitcomb at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Harder on Tuesday afternoon, November 19.

Mrs. W. W. Geary entertained her bridge club on Wednesday afternoon at her home on Fair Oaks avenue.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cooksey announces engagement of her daughter, Eva, to Mr. Earl Sloan of Deerfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Haywood Sloan of Oneida, Ill.

Dorcas Circle No. 2 of the Presbyterian church met with Mrs. John Dow on Thursday last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cahill and family of Milwaukee were guests at the Harold Young's home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Tennerman and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Meyer of Village of the Woods on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Scully, Jr., are hosts to their Saturday evening bridge club last week.

Mrs. F. W. Russo spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Williams of Nashville, Indiana.

Mrs. F. H. Earnest is planning to organize a society for girls of the Holy Cross church and all girls between ages of 6 and 16 are eligible.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vant were entertained by the members of the Bungalow church orchestra at the home of Mrs. Arno Frantz on last Monday evening.

Mrs. Minnie Willman, who has been visiting relatives in Deerfield for the past week returned to her home in Chicago on Wednesday. Mrs. E. H. Willman and Mrs. Ethan Willman accompanied her.

DEERFIELD CIVIC CALENDER

Monday, November 11—American Legion Auxiliary meeting at the home of Mrs. Alex Willman at 8 o'clock.

Tuesday, November 12—Card party in new hall of Holy Cross church at 8 o'clock.

Wednesday, November 13, at 8 o'clock—American Legion Post No. 738. Smoker at Masonic temple.

Thursday, November 14—Chicken dinner and annual bazaar at Presbyterian church.

Friday, November 15—P. T. A. card party in auditorium of school.

Saturday, November 16—Dance at Masonic temple. Happy Four.

Dorcas Society Holds Bazaar November 14

The Dorcas society of the Presbyterian church, in anticipation of their annual bazaar, are making extensive preparations and it will be held in the church on Thursday, November 14.

A delicious fried chicken dinner will open the affair and will be in charge of Mrs. Olson, Mrs. G. Pettis and Mrs. S. P. Hutchison.

The home-made candy booth will be in charge of Mrs. Kochelin, Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. Jack Myers and Mrs. Browning, Mrs. Dow, Mrs. Fred Meyer and Mrs. J. P. Freeman will be in charge of the fancy goods and apron booth, while Mrs. Koebelin, Sr. and Mrs. Virginia Hicks will have the grab bag. The home bakery department will be supervised by Mrs. W. Todd and Mrs. Neville.

At this bazaar you are sure to find a large assortment of suitable Christmas gifts to say nothing about the good things to eat and the society will be delighted to have you drop in.

Special Services to Celebrate Anniversary

On Sunday, Nov. 10 the Holy Cross church will celebrate its twentieth anniversary with a solemn high mass at eleven o'clock sung by Monsignor Thomas F. Quinn, the first pastor, now pastor of St. Sylvester's parish in Chicago and will be assisted by the Rev. J. K. Fielding, pastor of St. Patrick's church, Everett, as deacon, and the Rev. John B. Scanlon, pastor of Our Lady of Solace church, Chicago as subdeacon. The Rev. John O'Hearn, pastor of St. Mary's church, Lake Forest, will be master of ceremonies.

Music will be rendered by Professor Singenberger and a double quartette from St. Marys seminary of Mundelein.

The pastor, Rev. C. L. McDonough, extends an invitation to all members of the church and former parishioners to attend this celebration.

Miss Hendee to Speak at P. T. A. Meeting

Endeavoring to carry out, according to national congress P. T. A. program for November, which is national book week, the Deerfield P. T. A. has secured as their speaker for Friday afternoon, November eighth, Miss Hendee, librarian of Highland Park public library. Miss Hendee is considered a very fine librarian and at the Illinois Library association meeting held at Urbana in October she was elected second vice-president. Her personal charm, very efficient and noble work has won for her a host of admirers in the community.

From all indications Miss Hendee's talk will prove very worth while and all parents should avail of this opportunity of hearing it.

The membership campaign will close at the meeting and the room which obtained the most number of members will be awarded the prize.

There will be a social hour with refreshments following the program.

Basketball Team Gets Ready for Season

The basketball team of St. Paul's Evangelical church is preparing for the opening game and Coach Nagler is doing his utmost to develop a winning team and the following are members of the squad: Allie Johnson, Lloyd Laegeler, Howard Van Blair, Oscar Schwab, Eddie Johnson, Carl Berning, Victor Erickson, Kenneth Haggie, Edward Bleimehl, William Petersen, Jack Thomas, John Ott and Leslie Thurm.

The St. Paul's team is a church team sponsored by the members of the "Tri C" society. Members of the team must either be a member of the society and in a position to comply with the rules and regulations governing the members, or he must be an honorary member of the society and a member of the church.

The organization of a girls' team is also in progress under the direction of Mrs. Ed. Jacobson and Miss Irene Evanson.

Much Merriment at Halloween Party

The auditorium of the Deerfield school was the scene of much merriment on Thursday evening when the children of Deerfield enjoyed a Halloween party. Jack-o-lanterns grinning cheerfully from every corner, corn stalks and other customary paraphernalia created a seasonable and appropriate atmosphere for the party.

Clever stunts given by groups of pupils from each room proved a source of much entertainment.

Most of the children were in costume. The serving of cider, apples, cookies and lolly pops concluded a lively evening.

Masquerade Dance Is Successful Affair

The masquerade and moonlight dance, held in the Deerfield Masonic temple on Saturday evening, under auspices of Happy Four, attracted an unusually large crowd, who thoroughly enjoyed the affair.

Included among the prize winners were Mr. and Mrs. Austin Plagge of Des Plaines, Mrs. W. Page, Mrs. Scully, Mrs. Arthur Mau, Mrs. McCoy and Richard Mau.

The Lucky Four will sponsor a balloon dance on Saturday evening, November 16, and the Jockey Club orchestra will again furnish the music.

Altar and Rosary Society Plan Card Party

The Altar and Rosary society of the Holy Cross church will sponsor a card party in the new hall of the church on Tuesday evening, November 12 at 8 o'clock.

Bridge, five hundred and bunco will be played and many beautiful prizes will be awarded. There will also be a lady's and gentleman's door prize.

Refreshments will be served. The Eureka Vacuum Sweeper, which was held over from the carnival, will be awarded following the card games.