

The Highland Park Press

Egandale

This picture won first prize in the Ladies' Home Journal contest some 20 years ago for the "Best Vine Clad Porch" and was illustrated in that magazine. The main vine is Akebia Quinata and is mingled with several varieties of Clematis. These same vines are still gracing this porch. This has been the home of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Egan for forty years.

Thursday, November 14, 1929 Price 5c