

CHINDBLOM, BRITTEN BELIEVED WINNERS

Tribune in Canvass of Situation Predicts They Will Be Re-elected to Congress

"Political clairvoyants at this time see no likelihood of a change in the representation of Chicago's north side and northern suburbs in congress," declared the Chicago Tribune in a story canvassing the situation. It continues as follows: "They say all the signs indicate that the two federal lawmakers from the Ninth and Tenth congressional districts—Fred A. Britten and Carl R. Chindblom—will have little difficulty in winning re-election.

"It is a little early for the development of opposing candidacies, since the primary is not until next April, but the seers hold that in spite of there being plenty of time for the cooking up of a good hot fight in either or both instances there is a feeling among the practical boys that Britten and Chindblom are as strong as ever among their constituents.

Both Veterans in House

"And that is saying a great deal, (Continued on page 49)

Deerpath Theatre Has Fine Program for Week

An especially attractive and well-balanced program is to be offered at the Deerpath theatre, Lake Forest, during the coming week. On Friday and Saturday of this week will be presented "The Viking," the first perfected all-technicolor picture shown on the screen, with sound and music. This is said to be an exceptionally beautiful feature.

On Sunday of next week "The Side Streets" is the attraction, and all-talking picture, featuring for the first time on any stage or screen all the Moore brothers together, Mat, Tom and Owen.

Monday and Tuesday the feature is "The Dance of Life," all-talking, dancing and singing picture, with Nancy Carroll in leading role.

Wednesday brings "Skin-Deep," with Davey Lee and Monte Blue, another fine all-talking feature.

Thursday and Friday of next week the picture will be "The Girl from Havana," a three-star picture, all-talking.

Saturday next week brings "The Wise Girl," taken from the stage comedy-drama, "Kempy." It is an all-talking picture.

Benefit Card Party Wednesday, November 20

Trinity Church Service league will hold a benefit bridge party at the Moraine hotel next Wednesday, Nov. 20 at 2 o'clock. The proceeds from this party will be for the benefit of Chase Home, Catholic Shelter, St. Mary's Home for Girls and the Home for the Aged.

The committee in charge is as follows: Mrs. Joseph B. Card, Mrs. Irving Randall, Mrs. Robert E. Wood, Mrs. William Barker, Mrs. Martin Insull, Mrs. George A. Mason, Mrs. John R. Todd, and Mrs. Frank Gardner. Everybody is invited to help make this party a success.

Hon. Carl R. Chindblom

St. James Church Holds Bazaar Next Week

Preparations are being made for the annual bazaar of St. James church, Highwood to be held November 20 to 23 inclusive, in the parish hall. Beautiful hand-worked articles will be on sale affording a splendid opportunity for early Christmas shopping. On Wednesday afternoon, November 20, a card party will be given, prizes being awarded for the games played. On Thursday, November 21, a chicken dinner will be served from 5:30 to 8:00 o'clock. The afternoon of Friday will be devoted to the children. Entertainment dear to the children's hearts will afford them a pleasant afternoon. Saturday, November 23 will be the finale, when the awarding of prizes and gifts will take place. Plan to spend at least one afternoon or evening at the bazaar.

Rev. F. L. Gratiot's Mother Passes Away

Word was received last week of the death on Wednesday in her home in St. Louis of Mrs. Frederick W. Gratiot, 72 years old, mother of the Rev. Frederick L. Gratiot, rector of the Church of Our Savior, Chicago, and former religious writer for the Tribune. She is survived by her husband, three other sons besides the Rev. Mr. Gratiot, two daughters, sixteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. The funeral was held at 2 p. m. Thursday.

The Rev. Mr. Gratiot was formerly assistant rector at Trinity church here, and his many friends will regret to learn of his mother's death. The sympathy of his many friends here is extended Mr. Gratiot.

St. Johns Evangelical Church
Green Bay Rd. and Homewood Ave.
Rev. W. F. Fischer, Pastor

Sunday school at 9:30. We invite the children, the young people and adults.

Divine services at 10:30. The doors of our church are open for all, and we invite you to come and worship with us.

Copyright 1929 Hart Schaffner & Marx

You may not say it but you'll feel like it
"Thanks for these Thanksgiving Overcoat Values"

- Long wearing Motor Twist Overcoats by Hart Schaffner & Marx in all the new colors $50
- Argonaut fleece Overcoats by Hart Schaffner & Marx—warm, deep wools, light in weight..... $50
- Then a very fine Hart Schaffner & Marx Overcoat priced as low as $35
- Prep Coats $25

FELLS

Your Clothier

Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothes Exclusively

787 Elms St. - Winnetka 13 St. Johns Ave. - Highland Park
Phone 307 Phone 307