Meeting of Interest Is Held By P. T. A.

Miss Hendee, librarian of the Highland Park Public Library gave a most delightful talk to members of the Deerfield Parent Teacher association at a meeting held in the school auditorium on Friday afternoon. At a business session which preceded the program, Mrs. R. L. Johnson announced the card party, Mrs. Lewis Ashman gave a report of the Halloween party and Mrs. Irving Brand reported that the recent Rummage sale had netted the association $118.01.

The membership drive held in the school was most successful and the membership was swelled from 21 memberships in October to present 119 and the prize was awarded to Miss Leona Evans room which was 100 per cent.

Miss Jean Nygard's room was awarded the attendance prize. Tea was served by mothers of second grade room during the social hour.

The trouble with always having an open mind is that the wind is liable to fill it with rubbish.
