WELFARE WORKER TALKS TO WOMEN

Miss Irene Kawin of Cook Co. Juvenile Court at Ravinia Club

The Ravinia Woman's club at its November meeting indicated its deep interest in child welfare by the large audience that turned out, despite the inclement weather, to hear Miss Irene Kawin, deputy chief probation officer of the Juvenile Court of Cook county, Illinois, discourse on the various phases of work under the jurisdiction of that body. Rarely have the members spent a more delightfully informative afternoon. In her charming informality, sincerity and genuineness of purpose Miss Kawin completely won over her group of eager and intent listeners. She cited case after case so as to clarify her arguments. Surely nobody was left in doubt, generally speaking, as to the manner in which the workers attached to this humane court cooperate for the benefit of the innumerable maladjusts who happen into their paths.

Arouses Lively Interest

With rare tact the speaker established a bond of understanding between herself and her audience, to the end that she aroused a lively interest in the need for establishing a state supervised cottage with nursery attached for unmarried mothers and their babes.

A period of lively discussion followed.

The meeting reluctantly adjourned for tea.

COLLECT FOR CLUB WOMEN

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face, without self-pity and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.

Let us take time for all things; make us grow calm, serene and gentle.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are as one.

And may we strive to touch and know the great common woman's heart of us all; and O Lord God, let us not forget to be kind.

—Marie Stuart

Visit to Chicago

Commons Postponed

Because of the League of Women Voters' convention in Chicago this week, the anticipated visit of the Ravinia Woman's club to the Chicago Commons has had to be postponed.

However, as soon as another date is set, announcement will be made, and anyone interested in seeing the "Wheels go round" at this interesting settlement house, may communicate with Mrs. E. E. Leonard at that time.
