Citizens State Bank

Opens in Deerfield

Saturday, Nov. 23

The Citizens State bank of Deerfield is opening Saturday, November 23. Practical and valuable gifts will be given to everybody on the opening day. The entire bank staff will be present to greet depositors and visitors. The organization includes John L. Walker of Deerfield, president, who is also president of the Fort Dearborn Insurance of Chicago, the Citizens State bank of Glencoe and the Citizens State company of Chicago. Mr. Walker is also a director. Eugene K. Butler was also H. Walker of Chicago, a veteran banker of that city is a vice president, holding a similar office in the Citizens State company of Chicago. Mr. Walker's contacts with Chicago bankers and credit men will prove very valuable to the Deerfield organization. Eugene K. Butler is also secretary of the Citizens State Investment company and an officer of the Citizens State bank of Glencoe for the past four years. W. W. McIlvaine, the cashier is extremely enthused about his opportunity to build up the business facilities of Deerfield and his pleasing personality and banking background make him well fitted for his task.

Ethel Kreh, also of Deerfield, has been acquainting herself with the various clerical duties of banking at the Citizens State bank of Glencoe.
