New Scouts Register

Mr. Milton E. St. Peter of 584 Onwentsia avenue, Highland Park, has registered as assistant scoutmaster in troop 30 of the Elm Place school. Milton St. Peter is the son of Mr. S. A. St. Peter, the chairman of troop 30 committee. Mr. John L. Udell is scoutmaster.

Many new scouts have also registered. Troop 50, the new group at the Gross Point school, Wilmette, registered twelve scouts. Besides those there are the following candidates to become registered scouts.

Wilmette, troop 1—Franklin Grinnell; troop 5, Wilmette—Tom Finlayson, Dave Miller, Robert Mockler, Ian Stevens; troop 14, Winnetka—Edward Walters, Kenneth McLaren; troop 30, Highland Park—Francis Ronan; troop 32, Highland Park—Edward Rogan; troop 77, Mundelein—Stanley Degner.

To Give Scout Badges

Deerfield American Legion post, No. 738 of which George Briggs is commander, has volunteered to present to all the scouts in Deerfield the badges they earn during the calendar year of 1930. This will mean the Deerfield scouts will not need to buy any of the scout badges but the Merit badges, Tenderfoot, Second Class, First Class, and Star, Life, and Eagle pins will be paid for by the American Legion post.

This fine bit of service on the part of the post is greatly appreciated by the scouts of Deerfield. It will help many scouts to have the badges to wear where before they could not afford them. Best of all, the scouts and every one will know that the Deerfield American Legion is "all for scouting."

To Hold Court of Honor

On Friday evening, Nov. 29, troop 50 and 52 of Deerfield will hold their fall Court of Honor in the Deerfield Grammar school gym. Many interesting awards will be made including several camp awards. There will be interesting demonstrations such as pyramid building, fire by friction, and a fine first aid problem to be solved. It will be well worth the time of the people of Deerfield to attend this court and see what scouting has done for these boys.—Joe Andrews, reporter.

Bears Ahead in Contest

Troop 52 met last Friday evening in the Deerfield Presbyterian church. The meeting was well attended. We had our usual program. We had the patrols go to the patrol corners and gave them the patrol rating blanks. The Black Bear patrol, which is a new patrol, had an average of 15 1/2 points. The Stag patrol came second with 8 1/2 points. During the coming weeks several of the patrol leaders are planning patrol meetings and hikes.—Mark Andrews, reporter.

Black Bear Patrol

The Black Bear patrol of troop 52, Deerfield, met at the home of the patrol leader last Monday afternoon. All the members of the patrol were present. The patrol has just been organized and is progressing rapidly. At the patrol meeting tests were passed and studied. After the meeting the scouts took an observation hike through a nearby woods.—Joe Andrews, patrol leader, Black Bear patrol, Deerfield Press club.

Meets on Wednesday

The Deerfield Press club met for their regular meeting in Charles Kapschull's real estate office last Wednesday. Five boys were present for the meeting. They were Milton Merner, Joe Andrews, Harold Huhn, Eldon Frost and Kenneth Vetter. We worked out a schedule for writing of Deerfield Press club news. We are sorry that Mr. Masslich is sick and could not be present and hope that he will soon be feeling better.—The Press club.

Scouts Laugh at Cold

Sixteen scouts of troop 33, Lincoln school, went on the Cabin-in-the-Woods hike on Friday under the leadership of Scoutmaster H. R. Smith. Mr. Davidson, one of our troop committeemen, did not fail in his part in getting the load of bedding out, but he had trouble in doing it. The firewood detail got out early in charge of Roderick Smith and in spite of the low down thermometer we all were warm and comfortable for the night. Many of the scouts said that they slept better than at any time previous at the cabin. Denton Smith had charge of the evening meal of hunter's stew and fruit salad. Fred Reichardt flopped the flapjacks and bacon for breakfast and George Hinn put up a quick lunch of hot hamburger and apples for dessert. One of the special treats were the tasty cookies supplied by Mrs. Davidson. They put the final touch to every meal because of the quantity. She must know the size of a boy's appetite. Many tests were passed such as: knife and axe, nature, cooking and 14 mile hike.

Whenever there are five meeting nights in a month troop 33 makes the fifth one "Fun Nite" in which there are nothing but games, etc. for the program. November has five meeting nights, so November 30 will be "Fun Nite."—Troop 33, reporter.

Deerfield Troop Holds Test

A few announcements opened the meeting of Troop 52, Deerfield last Friday. We built pyramids and we played games. Then we had a dismissal of the troop. After that we held a court of review. Kenneth Vetter, Milton Merner, Mark and Joseph Andrews and Harold Huhn were reviewed on merit badges. Milton Merner was reviewed on first class. Mark and Joseph Andrews and Harold Huhn passed for life scout. On Friday, November 29, Troop 52 is going to have a court of award at 8:00 p. m. Every one is welcome.—Harold Huhn, Patrol Leader, Deerfield Press Club.

Council Scouts' Merit Badges

The active merit badge scouts in the North Shore Area council on October 1, 1929 had the total of 2706 merit badges. This number is steadily being increased. It is worth mention that 10 troops have totals of over 100 badges. Of course the troops are not all the same size, so these following figures are significant only in part, but here are totals for the 10 troops holding over 100 badges.

Troop 2, Wilmette — 136 merit badges; Troop 3, Wilmette—103 merit badges; Troop 4, Wilmette—209 merit badges; Troop 5, Wilmette—130 merit badges; Troop 13, Kenilworth—322 merit badges; Troop 21, Glencoe — 221 merit badges; Troop 31, Highland Park—150 merit badges; Troop 33, Highland Park—134 merit badges; Troop 35, Ravinia—123 merit badges.

Scouts Act As Police

Seven scouts of Troop 36, Highwood were appointed to act as police at the four day bazaar of St. James church. They were as follows: John Fiori, and Frank and Ambrose Cantagallo, Robert Golden, Edward Nolan, Willard Smith and Earnest Santi. These scouts did their work splendidly.

Troop 36 has quite a few of merit badges to be awarded at the next court of awards. All the new scouts are working hard to receive the tenderfoot badge which they will get soon. We could not have a regular troop meeting last week on account Billy Lardner, one of your Boy Scouts, up for it. Edward Nolan, a scout of Troop 36, is just about through with the merit badge of woodcarving. He is also working on his first class badge and will soon be a star scout.—Arthur Driscoll.
