ous adventure with but few parallels.

Six Months Making

"Evangeline" was more than six months in production. An entire city had to be built for some brief scenes. Two, three masted English frigates of the late 18th century type had to be built for the scenes marking the deportation of the Acadians, a single chapter of the film requiring nearly two months to picturize. The rocky shores of Acadia and the sub-tropical bayous of southern Louisiana are shown. More than 10,000 people have participated in the action of the play and Miss Del Rio has had in her support such popular screen players as Roland Drew, who supported her in "Romona," enacting the character of Gabriel, for whose love, Evangeline gave most of her lifetime; Donald Reed, recently seen with Billie Dove and Colleen Moore, cast as Baptiste, rival of Gabriel for Evangeline's hand and Alec B. Francis who plays Father Felician, the guiding shepherd of the Acadians in their distress. Paul McAllister recently seen as Noah, in "Noah's Ark," plays Benedict Bellefontaine, Evangeline's father. James Marcus, veteran character actor, plays Basil, the smithy, father of Gabriel. George Marion is seen as Rene Le Blanc, the notary and Bobby Mack assumes the character of Michael the fiddler. Lee Shumway is Colonel Winslow and Lou Payne is the auto-

Pantry Sale Precedes Sisterhood Meeting

There will be a Pantry Sale of delicacies of Wilmette chairman of shnechens, candies, nuts, salads, jellies and canned goods before the regular meeting of the sisterhood of the congregation Israel on Wednesday, Dec. 18. The proceeds will be used to carry on the many activities of the sisterhood. Mrs. B. S. Goodman of Glencoe and Mrs. Jacob Weinberg of Highland Park are co-chairmen of the sale and will be ably assisted by Mrs. Felix Lowry of Winnetka, who is chairman of the cake table, Mrs. S. Baer of Wilmette chairman of shnechens, breads and German coffee cakes, Mrs. Charles Sincere of Glencoe, chairman of candy and nuts, Mrs. Herbert Schram of Evanston, chairman of jellies and canned goods; Mrs. Herbert Conheim of Glencoe, chairman of salads; Mrs. Norman Gerber of Wilmette chairman of recipes; Mrs. Felix Rothchilds and Mrs. Miles Freedman of Winnetka have charge of the decoration. All friends and guests are invited and hope to make this sale even a greater success than that of last year.

Anyhow we are glad that the revenue cutters didn't find it necessary to fire on any Canadian rum boats while Prime Minister MacDonald was here on his peace mission.

cratic governor-general, whose forceful deportation of the Acadians is a presumption of authority.

Shoes and Hose—
the happy gift
for tiny toes!

Sprightly new shoes to be proudly displayed; hosiery as new and bright as Christmas morning! As a child they meant more to you than most of your luxuries of today. Childhood is the same today in its pride in spic and span new footwear. Select your gift for the child, the babe, or the youth at Pool & Piper's . . . either you or Santa will be credited with rare good judgment!

Open Saturday Evenings

Last week we made an experiment. For the first time in 16 years we remained open for business on Saturday evening. So many of our customers were on hand that we are going to put it on our regular program: Saturdays, 8:30 A. M. until 9:00 P. M.; Monday to Friday, 8:30 A. M. to 6 P. M.
