James Waterman Wise
"Religion's Changing Skyline"
Sunday morning, December 1.

Mr. James Waterman Wise, son of Rabbi Stephen S. Wise of the Free Synagogue of New York City, author, lecturer and educator, will speak at the North Shore Congregation Israel, Lincoln and Vernon avenues, Glencoe, at the regular service next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

"Religion's Changing Skyline" is the subject to be chosen by Mr. Wise, which will include a discussion of problems of modern youth. Mr. Wise has been called the "Spokesman of Youth" and has spent many months abroad, as well as years in America, making a special study of European and American youth movements. He is the author of a number of books, best known being "Jews Are Like That."

Mr. Wise is considered a brilliant speaker and the general public is cordially invited to hear him.

The prime minister of South Africa says that buying automobiles is hurting the farmers of South America more than anything else. What does he expect them to ride in—airplanes?
