Junior Officers Conference
The north shore area junior officers conference, which was scheduled to be an all-day session, will be only an afternoon gathering at the Young Men's club in Lake Forest on this Saturday afternoon, December 7, from 2:00 until 5:00. There will be no fees for the conference and every junior officer will sure miss a great opportunity if he isn't there. You have probably read about Mr. William Tompkins, the international sign language expert, that will be there.

On this occasion and this occasion only you will be privileged with a special conference price of 50 cents for the Patrol Leaders Handbook, which regularly sells at 75 cents. A large number of articles, pamphlets and scouting aids will be given free to those junior officers present. Every scout coming must register at scout headquarters. Come on! Let's register J. O.'s and make this the biggest conference the council has ever had.

Has Membership Campaign
At the meeting of Troop 48, Lake Forest, held Friday evening, November 29, two more boys reported in uniform, they were Fred Schroeder and Bert Raymond. Three of the boys now have their uniforms, the third is Fred Jenson. The rest are trying to have theirs for the meeting of December 5, at which time the troops expects to add several new names to its list of members. One application has already been received, that of Kenneth Kennedy, 616 Ryan place. We hope that next Saturday, December 7, the weather will permit us to take the 14-mile hike planned for last Friday. The troop committee is planning on having a meeting Monday, December 2, for the purpose of discussing ways and means for the boys to get jobs after school. With the money thus earned they will be in a position to buy their uniforms or patrol equipment.

Have you seen the posters around town telling about the drive for funds for Lake Forest Scouts. We hope everyone who possibly can will contribute to this fund and help put Lake Forest where it belongs in scouting.

Deerfield Press Club
The regular meeting of the Deerfield Press club was held on Wednesday afternoon at 4:30. There were three members, Kenneth Vetter, Harold Huhn and Milton Merner, present. We wrote reports and discussed plans for future press club meetings. Milton Merner, Deerfield Press club.

Troop 52, Deerfield
The meeting of Troop 52, Deerfield, opened at 7:15. There were 22 scouts and four officers present. After the announcements were read, we had pyramind practice for a court of award stunt. Then we had test passing in our patrol corners. Then after some games we had closing ceremony Harold Huhn, patrol leader, Deerfield Press club.

Overnight Hike
Troop 37 went to the "Cabin in the Woods" Saturday and Sunday, the 23rd and 24th. We went out in cars and walked half way home. When we went two boys went in a truck to get wood while the rest waited for it so they could chop it. When Mr. Walecka, the scoutmaster, got there he got the boys organized. Three boys helped him in the kitchen to prepare supper. We had baked beans for supper, which tasted very good. After supper some boys went skating on the creek and some boys stayed at the cabin and played games. We went to bed at eight after Mr. Walecka popped popcorn for us.

In the morning we got up at seven. We had cocoa and cereal for the first thing and pancakes after and how. After breakfast some went skating and some fixed their packs. We had dinner at twelve and then cleaned up and left for home. Some rode home but the ones walking had most fun. We scared two rabbits up and caught a mole. We had a wonderful time and we thank Mr. Walecka very much because he did most of the cooking, which was great. Scout Anker Jepsen and Scout Albert Buligary, reporters, Troop 37.

Radio Program of Interest
The December issue of Boy's Life announce some interesting radio programs over a coast to coast network of the Gilbert hour through the National Broadcasting company. On December 9, Grantland Rice, the noted sportsman, will be on the program and on December 15 is a big "Surprise Night." The program will be a great interest to all boys, particularly scouts. It will be broadcast locally over WCFL or WTMJ in Milwaukee at 4:30 p. m.

Reading Merit Badge
On Friday, November 29, Troop 37 held their regular meeting at the Oak Terrace school, during which the scouts were informed of the new merit badge in reading. Most of the meeting was given over to practicing in signalling. Mr. Walecka returned the dish towels that some of the scouts had forgotten at the cabin in the woods. Mrs. Walecka had washed the towels for them. Scout Jacob Jappesen.

Troop 34
Saturday, the 30th, being the fifth meeting night in the month of November, Troop 33 of Lincoln school had a "Fun Nite." From seven to eight a board of review was conducted for the scouts getting ready for awards on December 6—our big court of honor and parents' night. After that there were several games. Then came the best part of all, eats! We had grape juice, cookies, ginger-snaps and Eskimo pies, three apiece! The cookies and Eskimo pies appeared mysteriously during the evening. We have just received information from a little birdie that it was Joe Klaber's birthday, so we can guess where they came from. Too bad, Joe, that we neglected to give you the proper attention. Troop 33 reporter.

Demonstrate First Aid Stunts
Our last troop meeting was held

November 20. Each patrol did a first aid stunt. Clyde Cameron's patrol had Richard Theroux their victim. He was supposed to have fallen on an electric wire. Clyde Cameron and Arthur Truelson gave him proper treatment.

Richard Thormeyer's patrol had Woodrow Wilson and Ira Arguilla as the victims. A boat was supposed to have exploded. The rest of the patrol gave them proper treatment. George Anderson, Arrow Hawk Patrol, Scribe Troop 61.

Patrol Meeting
On November 25 the Arrow Hawk patrol met as usual at Patrol Leader Richard Thormeyer's house. A secret oath was made up, also penalties for disobeying the oath. The Arrow Hawk patrol had made up its mind about its patrol flag. It will be a red hawk on a white background with a red arrow over and under it. Several tests were passed at the meeting and it ended with the scout oath. All the "Hawks" were present at the meeting. Woodrow Wilson, patrol reporter, Troop 61.

Sign Language Expert
The scoutmasters of the North Shore Area will gather at district meetings on Sunday, December 8, to meet Mr. William Tompkins, internationally known Indian sign language expert. There will be one hour meetings in three places in the council, so as to make it possible for every scout leader to attend. This meeting will count on the scoutmasters training course to begin after first of the year. The meetings will be held at the following places on Sunday. Winnetka, 2:30 p. m., at city hall.
