Y. W. C. A. Notes

Now a Ginter and Schemmel are both in the swimming With smiles and with cheers as they go on their way. But the Chanticleer's Chandler crows best of them all For she talks the long day for our Y. W. C. A.

Still there's Okey and Horn both famous for song And Rybolt whose talents are also well known And last but not least the sweetest and best Is the Pier where our "Y" anchors safely and well.

Now the rest of us workers are busy still digging To bring in the gold for our Y.W.C.A. And the smile of Mrs. Hutton would please e'e a glutton For it's cheering to us and our Y. W. C. A.

Makio G.R.

The Makio Girl Reserves on November 22 had one of the most impressive recognition services that has ever been held at our Y.W.C.A. Seated in a form of a triangle whose sides represent body, mind, and spirit the girls saw lighted the white candle for spirit, the red for body, and the blue for mind. Each girl held her own candle which she lighted from the large white one and touched upon the flames of the red and blue one thus lightning her light with the three flames which symbolized her pledge to grow in spirit, knowledge and health.

Whether a Girl Reserve be 12 or 18, she tries to stand for the best that is in her. Every Girl Reserve has these three things to keep before her as ideals:

- Slogan—To face life squarely.
- Purpose—To find and give the best.
- Code—As a Girl Reserve to try to be—
G—racious in manner.
I—mpartial in judgement.
R—eady for service
L—oyal to friends
R—eaching toward the best.
E—arnest in purpose.
S—eeing the beautiful.
E—ager for knowledge.
R—everent to God.
V—ictorious over self.
E—ver dependable.
S—incere at all times.

Freshman G. R.

Christmas is coming. It wont be long before all of us are wrapping up mysterious packages which will bring joy to someone at the gayest season of our year. The Freshman Girl Reserves have bought their dolls which they are dressing for some fortunate little girl at the Erie Chapel mission in Chicago. While some girls prepared the club Thanksgiving dinner at the Y. W. C. A. on Monday, November 25, the other girls began to make doll clothes and while these girls cleared away the dishes afterwards the girls who had cooked and set table worked on their dolls' ward- robes.

Next to the speed maniac, deliver us on the open road from the fellow who drives like he was making a slow motion picture.
