

Farm Boys and Girls Visit Model Farm at Mundelein This Week

Two large delegations of boys and girls from rural communities throughout the country, who are attending the eighth annual congress of the 4-H club being held in Chicago in connection with the International Livestock Exposition, have visited the Model Farm, operated by the Public Service company near Mundelein, during their stay in town.

A group of 250 boys made the trip Sunday, Dec. 1, leaving from the North Water street "L" terminal at 2 p. m., aboard a special five-car train over the North Shore Line, for Mundelein. Special Marigold motor coaches of the Metropolitan System met the party at Mundelein station and took them to the Model Farm.

Over 575 girl delegates visited the Model Farm on Wednesday, Dec. 4. Following a trip through the Montgomery-Ward plant in Chicago, the girls were taken to Mundelein aboard two special six-car trains over the

Mrs. Dowie Says No Fighting Overseer

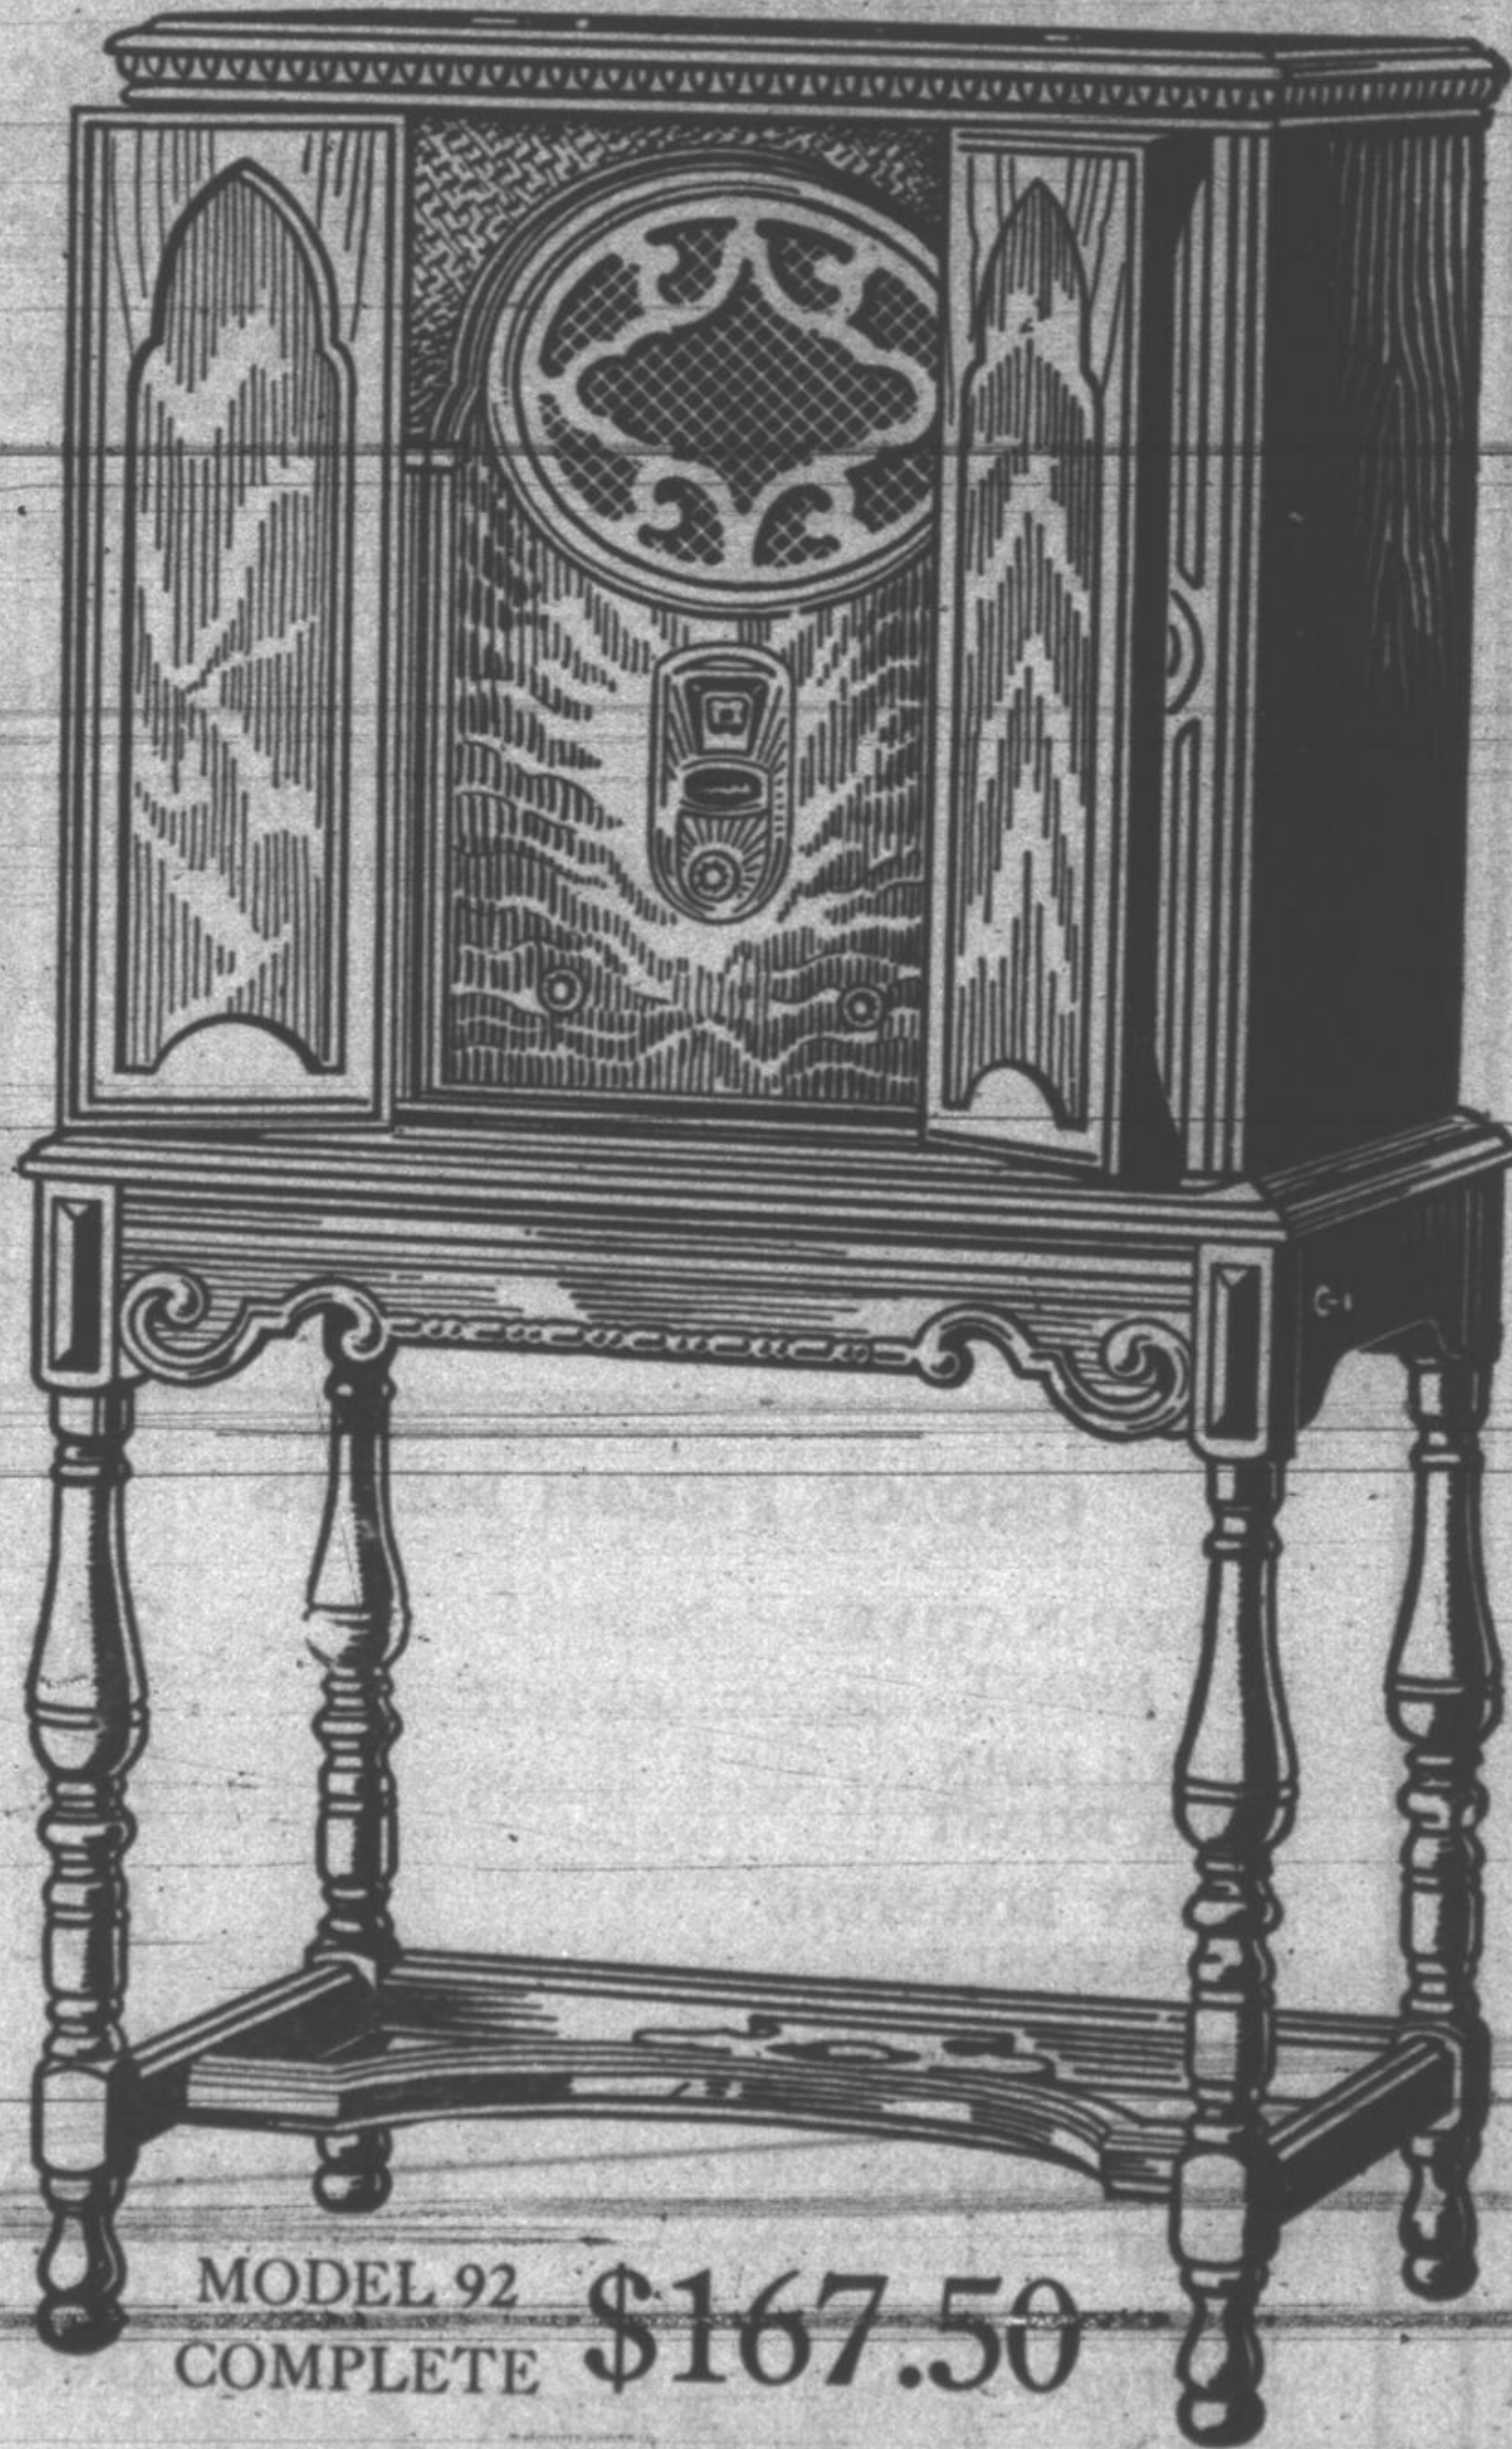

"I did not come back to Zion to fight Wilbur Glenn Voliva, but I have returned to be near the graves of my husband and daughter, and to conduct a divine healing mission here in cooperation with the little band of followers who loved my husband so well," Mrs. John Alexander Dowie, a gentle, somewhat feeble old lady, said after she had been welcomed on the porch of Bethesda Temple by her old friends on her return to Zion.

A small group of people, who despite Wilbur Glenn Voliva's long rule in Zion have for more than 20 years remained faithful to the memory of John Alexander Dowie, gathered on the porch of Bethesda Home to greet the wife of their dead leader. Among these people were many of the original followers of Dr. Dowie, who followed him to Zion from Chicago many years ago.
