James Nolan Funeral Held Monday Morning; Interment in Calvary

The funeral of James Nolan, well known plumbing contractor, whose death in his home, 656 Michigan avenue, Highland Park, occurred about 8 o'clock last Friday morning, when, according to the verdict of a coroner's jury at the inquest, he shot himself with suicidal intent while temporarily deranged, was held Monday morning in St. James church, Highwood, and burial was in Calvary cemetery.

Mr. Nolan's health had not been good and Friday morning, according to the story told the police, he complained of severe pains in his head. He went to the bathroom and shot himself in the head with a .38 calibre revolver, which was found lying beside him. Mrs. Nolan, who was in the basement, rushed to the bathroom and then called a physician and the police.

The inquest was held Friday afternoon at H. F. Kelley's office and the jury was composed of John Gallagher, Fred Rudolph, Albert Larson, Lloyd McCaffrey, Eugene Zahnle, and Joseph Genest.

Mr. Nolan was regarded as one of the best plumbers on the north shore and during his long residence here had worked hard and held the esteem of a wide circle of friends, whose sorrow is profound at his sad end. The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved wife and daughter.

Deerpath Theatre Program for Week

Saturday, Dec. 14, "The Great Divide," featuring Dorothy Mackail, Ivan Keith and George Fawcett.

Sunday, Dec. 15, "Fast Life" with Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. and Loretta Young. This is a three-star picture and has made a hit everywhere it has been shown.

Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 16 and 17, "Our Modern Maidens" with Joan Crawford.

Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 18 and 19, Clara Bow in "The Saturday Night Kid."

Friday and Saturday, Dec. 20 and 21, "A Song of Kentucky," a story of the turf, featuring Lois Moran.

Mrs. Thora Anderson's Funeral on Wednesday

Mrs. Thora Anderson, wife of John Anderson, died Monday morning at her home, 721 Ridgewood drive, aged 63 years. Her husband and grown children are living. The funeral was held at the residence at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and interment was in the North Shore cemetery.

W. C. T. U. Meets December 18.
The Highland Park Women's Christian Temperance union will hold their regular meeting on Wednesday, Dec. 18 at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Wm. Pearce, 418 Glencoe avenue.

Help a Little Child
Will you give a Christmas to a little child? Fill a stocking, marking age and sex of child, and send to Mrs. Henry Vail, 225 Laurel avenue, before December 19.

James Lyons' Will Is Admitted to Probate

The will in the estate of James Lyons, of Deerfield, was admitted to probate this week by Probate Judge Martin C. Decker. It disposes of personal property and real estate valued at $200,000 and the sister, Catherine Mathews, of Chicago, is cut off without a bequest.

The Lyons property is in dispute in circuit court, according to the Waukegan Sun, which says: Mrs. Mathews claims that Lyons deeded his property to her Attorney Wm. A. Deane, counsel for the heirs, charges that while Lyons signed a deed he did not know what he was signing. He could not read or write.

The will left $5,000 each to Stephen Mathews, Mary Lynch, nephew and niece and one-half the income of a $40,000 trust fund to a cousin, Annie Lyons. The other half of the income is to go to Charley Sargent, a friend of the deceased. At their death their $20,000 portion is to be distributed to their heirs. They also are to share equally of the residue of the estate which would be close to $150,000.

Good Entertainment at New Evanston Theatre

Beginning next Monday the Lake Shore Production Players at the New Evanston theatre will present "Fair and Warmer," the old favorite by Avery Hapgood. John Winthrop, director of the company, will play the male lead, a part he appeared in successfully for more than forty weeks under the management of Selwyn & Company. Martha Townsend will be cast opposite Wm. Winthrop.

The New Evanston theatre is on a par with Broadway this week, for simultaneously with a certain New York theatre, the Lake Shore Productions is presenting the brand new comedy, "Jonesy," by Anne Morrison. That isn't all. This is the first New York season of the play, and it is rumored that the royalties charged are something fierce.

The author of this clever play crammed the lines with laughs, and the players who execute these lines don't allow a moment of breathing space from the opening curtain to the concluding spasm, which ends with a shower of tickets to a policeman's picnic.

Man Is Injured in Auto-Handcar Crash

Joseph E. Martiney suffered slight injuries December 5 while raising a handcar on the St. Paul railroad, when his car was struck by an automobile at the Route 22 crossing, according to report to the police by Mrs. E. K. Holmsted of Highwood, whose car was involved. Martiney was taken first to Deerfield and then to the Highland Park hospital for treatment.

The Buick four-passenger coupe owned by R. L. Thorsch, reported stolen from a parking place on South First street late last week, was located by the local police in Evanston on Sunday.

Mrs. Agnes Duffy will be hostess tomorrow afternoon to the members of her bridge club. There will be three tables.

E. E. Uhler Passes Away Suddenly Dec.

The many friends and business associates of Emil E. Uhler were shocked to learn of his sudden death at the Henrotin hospital, Friday, Dec. 6. He left home at 8 a. m. apparently in best of health and spirits, meeting his family doctor who was to remove his tonsils. He expired during preparation. Mr. Uhler was president and owner of the Theatrical Poster Co., located at 823 South Wabash avenue, Chicago, and was recognized by all theater management and theatrical profession as being a leader in his line and one that Chicago could not afford to lose at this time. He was also acknowledged by many of the leading commercial enterprises as being originator of "Modern Art Window Displays." For the past three years he has lived in his new home in Deerfield place, Highland Park.

At the age of 21 he married and sailed directly overseas where he served eighteen months in the World war. His pleasing personality and congenial spirit made him loved and respected by all who knew him. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, Bernice M., a mother and father and four brothers.

The remains was taken to Pawnee, Nebraska, where his Brother Marsons took charge of burial.

Naval Academy Ass'n Hold Annual Party

The Naval Academy Association of Chicago will hold its annual dinner-dance in the Tower room of the Drake hotel, December 14. Membership in the association is made up of Annapolis alumni now in civilian life in Chicago. John Metcalfe of Winnetka is president and W. B. McCandless, secretary.

Local Supervisors Attend Board Meeting

The regular December meeting of the county board of supervisors began Tuesday and is being attended by all the members from Deerfield township, with the exception of Arthur W. Vercoe, who is prevented by illness. At Tuesday's session reports from the sheriff, county clerk and probate clerk were received by the county board of supervisors. Sheriff Doolittle showed expenditures of $11,359 for the past six months and receipts of $10,077. County Clerk Hendee showed receipts of $23,663 and disbursements of $8,843 for a balance of $14,819. Probate Clerk Bullock showed receipts of $4,732 and disbursements of $3,015 for a balance of $1,716.
