

Highland Park Methodist Church North Ave. at Laretta Place Frank Davidson Hopkins, Minister Next Sunday will be "Christmas Sunday" and the morning service will be distinctively in keeping with the season. The church will be pleasingly decorated, there will be extra musical numbers from the enlarged choir under the direction of Mrs. Paul Downing and the pastor will preach a Christmas sermon. Our people may look forward to an inspiring, happy service and a large congregation is looked for.

The Church school Christmas program will be given in the church on Tuesday evening next, Christmas Eve, and will be one of unusual interest and beauty. The committee in charge has been endeavoring to produce a program of unusual character and different from the ordinary and has succeeded. The Beginners and Primary departments will have the right of way at the opening and will delight everyone with their offering of songs and exercises. Following them will come the "Pageant of the Nativity," to be presented in four very beautiful pantomime tableaux, with appropriate music and costumes. The lighting effects will be given special care and the musical numbers of Christmas songs will be given by the church choir. The various parts are being taken by members of the young peoples classes and a few adults. The scenic effects showing the village of Bethlehem and its surroundings will cover the entire rear of the platform. Of course there will be the usual Christmas tree and after the pageant the school will present its gifts to our Lake Bluff Orphanage and other worthy objects; this is always a prominent feature in the life of the school and the church never is large enough to accommodate all who wish to get in.

The committee in charge of the Jubilee anniversary is rapidly getting matters into shape. The morning evenings services on Sunday, January 19 will be devoted to this historic celebration and former pastors and friends will take part. There will also be a special service on Monday evening. The main feature of the celebration will be the Jubilee anniversary banquet on Tuesday evening, January 21, when Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes will be the speaker and Rev. Dr. John Thompson, the popular pastor of the Chicago temple, will preside as toastmaster. This banquet will be given in the large assembly room of the Y.W.C.A. and it is expected that every available seat at the tables will be reserved long before that night. Further particulars will be given from week to week.
