

DEERFIELD NEWS-FLASHES

Deerfield Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fuller of Twin Oak Bannockburn are the happy parents of a baby boy, Charles Frederick, born Thursday, December 5 at 9:05 a. m. at the Highland Park hospital.

The Ladies-Get-Together club was entertained by Mrs. Mary Huhn at her home on Deerfield avenue, Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Martin of Spruce street are the happy parents of a daughter, Anne-Marie, born Wednesday, December 11, at the Highland Park hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Reeds of Orchard street were hosts at a dinner party on Saturday. Guests were mostly all relatives from Waukegan.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Clavey had as their guests on Saturday Mr. and Mrs. George Bucker and Miss Sue Kyle of Oak Park, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Schramm of Winnetka.

Mrs. George D. Richards, who has been seriously ill at Tarpon Spring hospital, Tarpon Springs, Fla., is slowly recovering. Mr. and Mrs. Richards left their home on Fair Oaks avenue, early in October, to spend the winter in Clearwater, Florida.

Mrs. Harry Clavey was hostess at a luncheon-bridge at her home on Second street which was in holiday array for the occasion on Friday. Christmas color predominated in the attractive table decorations and favors. Twelve guests attended including a number from Highland Park, Mmes. A. Mullenback, A. Abercrombie, I. Rasmussen and H. Moran.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clavey entertained guests from Waukegan on Sunday.

At a recent meeting of the Independent Social club held at the home of Mrs. Louise Huehl, the following officers for the ensuing year were elected: Mrs. A. J. Johnson, president; Mrs. Minnie Whitcomb, vice president; Mrs. Josephine Toll secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Earl Frost of Osterman avenue will be the next hostess.

Mrs. F. P. Browning was hostess to the Pot-luck club at her attractive new bungalow in Briarwoods on Wednesday afternoon.

The National Tea Co. is opening a store in the Citizens bank building on Waukegan road in a short time.

Miss Frances Loy and Mrs. Paul Dietz, representing the Mutual club, visited the Cook County hospital in Chicago on Sunday and took gifts of candy, games and cake to the patients.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wheaton of Wheaton place, Wheaton, Ill., visited Miss Amelia Peterson on Sunday.

Bobby Piper, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Piper of Chestnut street, who has been ill with scarlet fever at the Alice Home hospital, Lake Forest, has returned to his home.

Monday evening, December 23, the annual Christmas program will be given at the Bungalow Evangelical church. On Sunday afternoon there will be vesper services and cantata by the choir at 4 o'clock.

Play Proves Success to Be Given Again

The home life in the Kentucky mountains was cleverly portrayed in "The Golden Coin at Scrappin' Creek" by a group of the members of the Young People's Missionary circle when it was presented in a very delightful manner at the Bungalow church on last Sunday evening. It was received with such enthusiastic response that a request was received to repeat it at a later date.

Cast of characters included: Mrs. Wessling, mother; Bill Stemm, Verine Gunckel; Ruth Frantz, Arthur Cashmore; Vernon Giss, Bruce Frost, and Kenneth Vetter, member of the family, and Helen Cox, Bible teacher.

R. N. A. Elect Officers at Meeting Thursday

At a meeting of the Deerfield R. N. A. held in the Masonic temple on last Thursday evening the following officers for the ensuing year were elected:

Oracle, Mrs. Margaret Pettis; vice oracle, Mrs. Gertrude Johnson; recorder, Mrs. Martha-Love; receiver, Mrs. Lulu Meyer; chancellor, Mrs. Sadie Beckman; inner sentinel, Mrs. Emiline Beckman; outer sentinel, Miss Gertrude Johnson; musician, Mrs. Marian Stryker; marshal, Miss Pearl Juhrend; managers, Mrs. Althea Soefker, Mrs. Hilda Olson and Mrs. Augusta Hagi.

Following the business session delicious refreshments were served by hostess, Mmes. A. Hagi, Althea Soefker, Minnie Whitcomb and Hilda Olson.

75 Pupils to Appear in Christmas Program

Parents and members of the Deerfield Parent-Teacher association are again reminded of the meeting and Christmas program to be held in the school auditorium on Friday afternoon, December 20, at 2 p. m.

The program promises to be something very unusual and worthwhile. It is an operetta, "The Search for Santa Claus," and seventy-five pupils will take part.

Present Play Dec. 29

The senior group of the Presbyterian church school will present a play entitled "The Search for the Christ Child" on Sunday evening, Dec. 29, in the church auditorium. On Sunday morning during the regular service hour the choir will render a cantata, "The Redeemer of the World," by Fred Holton.

Christmas Parties Are Planned During Holidays

The officers and teachers of the Presbyterian church school have arranged the following schedule for Christmas parties: Thursday, Dec. 26, the junior department will have a rainbow Christmas supper at 6:30 o'clock. The juniors have also selected as their method of sharing their Christmas cheer by buying Christmas tree and trimmings for Tuscon Indian training school at Escuela, Arizona.

The primary department will be entertained at the church from 2 to 4 o'clock Friday afternoon, December 27.

Monday afternoon, December 30, in the beginners' room a party will be held for the beginners and in the evening at 7:30 o'clock. The intermediates will be entertained.

The cradle roll party will be held later in the season and the seniors will also announce date later.

Dancing Classes End With Costume Party

The dancing class, which has been held in the Deerfield grammar school auditorium every Tuesday afternoon for the past three months under direction of Mrs. Fosberg of Waukegan, assisted by Miss Brand of Highland Park, was brought to a close on Tuesday, Dec. 17, with a costume Christmas party, which delighted the twenty children who have been enrolled in the class.

The committee, composed of P. T. A. members who are sponsoring the class, are not planning to continue with it after the holidays.

Mr. F. D. Clavey, Raymond and Amanda Clavey left Tuesday morning for Florida.

The Deerfield R. N. A. will have an annual Christmas party on Thursday evening, Dec. 26, at Masonic temple and will hold installation of officers at January meeting.

Mrs. Raymond Horenberger will entertain the next meeting of the Independent Social club at her home on Tuesday afternoon, January seventh.

Mr. B. E. Chelberg and Mrs. Ida Rhorbeck, father and sister of Mrs. A. J. Johnson, left last Saturday for Denver, Colo., where they will spend several weeks, after which they will leave for their future home in Santa Barbara, Cal. Mr. Chelberg has made his home for the past six years with Mrs. Johnson and recently celebrated his eightieth birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Henry Hoffman has been ill for the past week at her home on Park avenue.

Deerfield Library

Several new books of fiction, biography and travel are to be found at Deerfield public library.

Reserves are made when requested. A seven-day period is allowed for the new fiction. Two weeks on biography and travel.

One thousand, four hundred and four books were circulated in November, an indication of increasing interest in the library.

The library will not be open on Christmas day.

New books, adult fiction—

Johnny Reb, Oemler; The Good Companions, Priestley; Burning Beauty, Bailey; The Laughing Queen, E. Barrington; Fugitive's Return, Susas Glaspell; Early Candlelight, Lovelace; Beautiful Years, Williamson; The Incredible Year, Baldwin; Five and Ten, Hurst.

Adult, non-fiction—

New Worlds to Conquer, Halliburton; Trailing the Tiger, Bradley; School and Home, Patri; The Wonderful Story of Science; McFee; The Mind at Wischief, Sadler; The Incredible Marquis, Gorman.

Juvenile fiction—

Big Aviation Book for Boys, Byrd; Aces Tip, Clarke; Non Stop Stowaway, Knight; The Hero of Vincennes, Thomas; The Rigor of the Game, Pier; The Boy With the U. S. Aviators, Rolt-Wheeler; Christopher Robin Story Book, Milne; Bed Time and Animal Stories for Children.

Non-fiction—

Heroes of Peace, Chamberlin.

Return for Holidays

At the end of this week there will be a joyous on rush of Deerfield young people from their respective colleges to spend the Christmas holidays at home. From the University of Illinois will come Douglas Hastings, who has won honors on the soccer team.

From Carleton college, Northfield, Minn., Jane Wood and Jane Ashman. From the University of Iowa Wesley Stryker, who will be accompanied by his sister, Laurel, and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kynett Haehlen.

Miriam Stryker will return from her nursing duties in Passavent hospital, Chicago, to be one of the family party. Kenneth Wessling also goes to the University of Iowa at Ames. George Stryker and Wallace Reichelt attend the University at Lake Forest. Julia Mele is a student at the University of Chicago. Gordon Kress is captain of the freshmen football team at the University of Missouri.

John O'Connor is at the University of Wisconsin. Edna Fritsch attends Northwestern university.

Deerfield Motorists

Take Note of This

C. E. Huhn, clerk of the village of Deerfield, requests that all Deerfield motorists, who wish to retain the same numbers they had last year on their vehical licenses, get their applications in not later than Tuesday, December 31.

DEERFIELD NEWS AND PERSONAL ITEMS

Send contributions to local correspondent before Tuesday noon. Help her to make this section interesting.

MRS. LORETTA WILLMAN, Local Editor

Lincoln Ave., Deerfield, Ill.

Tel. Deerfield 153-R