Dog Saves Dog

Belmont, Mass.—Caught for eight days with his left forepaw jammed in the jaws of a hunter's trap in the McLean Woods near here, a hound dog was kept alive by the faithful ministrations of an Airedale which brought him meat and food scraps from garbage pails. The hound had strayed far from his New Hampshire home. J. H. Munroe of Nashua, N. H., is his master. Saved by boy scouts, the dog is now under treatment, but the paw which was in the trap had to be amputated. An effort will be made to find and punish the owner of the trap for not visiting it every 24 hours, as required by law.
