"I Promise Me" Money for next Christmas

THAT is what you do when you join our Christmas Club—make a promise to yourself. And we are organizing the club to make it easier for you to keep the promise. Small weekly payments, of course. If you have tried it, you know how satisfactory it is. If you haven't, there are thousands who will testify to it and add that your next Christmas will be happy if you have the means of making others happy.
