

Among the Local Churches

First Church of Christ, Scientist
Highland Park, Ill., 381 Hazel avenue, a branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., holds services every Sunday morning at 10:45 and on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, when testimonies of Christian Science healings are given. Sunday school meets at 9:30 a. m., and is open to pupils between the ages of four and twenty.

Subject for next Sunday's lesson sermon, "Sacrament."

You are cordially invited to make use of the reading room, 361 Central avenue, which is open every week day from nine in the morning until six in the evening and on Wednesdays until 7:30. The reading room is also open on Sunday afternoon from 2:30 to 5:30.

Bethany Evangelical Church

H. P. Siemsen, pastor

A. S. Haag, assistant pastor

The Woman's Missionary society will meet on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Vetter, 357 McDaniels avenue.

The pastors and Sunday school superintendents of the city will meet in the Philathea room at Bethany church Friday evening 7:30, to plan for a community leadership training class.

Mr. Haag, our assistant, will return from his vacation this week and will be back with us for next Sunday. He will have charge of the Junior church again, which will be good news to all of our boys and girls. Parents are urged to send their children not only to Sunday school but to a worship service of their own as well.

Services next Sunday will be held as follows—Sunday school under direction of Dr. E. D. Fritsch at 9:45. Morning worship at 11:00 at which time the pastor will speak on the subject "The Message of a Great Messenger." The Young People's service will begin at 7:00 p. m. Their subject for discussion is one of great interest and they welcome the young people of the community who do not attend other youth services, to come and join their number. The evening service commences at 7:45. The congregational song service with the pipe organ combinations has been making quite a hit with the evening audience. If you enjoy singing some of your old favorites, hand the title to the pastor the previous Sunday, as many as possible will be used the following Sunday evening, either by the congregation, organ, quartet or in some other manner. The pastor will bring a brief message at the evening service.

St. John's Evangelical Church
North Green Bay road and Homewood avenue

F. W. Fischer, pastor

The Sunday school will meet at 9:30. Parents let us have your children, we have room for them.

Divine worship at 10:30. The pastor will give the second of the series of sermons on "The Apostles' Creed." The topic will be "Our God the Father." The text you will find in Romans 1:19, 20.

The first of our evening services will be conducted at 7:30. The topic will be: "Who Is An Evangelical preacher?"

Sunday school teachers please do not forget the meeting at Bethany church on Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

This church extends a warm welcome to everybody.

Lake Forest Gospel Mission

Alexander Milmine, Pastor

Bright evangelistic service on Friday evenings of each week at the First Presbyterian church (located on the corner of Sheridan road and Deerpath avenue) under the auspices of the above gospel mission.

This week, Friday, Jan. 10, at 8 p. m. Preacher, Fr. Alex Milmine, formerly of Glasgow, Scotland.

Special musical numbers will be rendered. "We Preach Christ and Him Crucified." We extend a cordial invitation to one and all to attend.

First United Evangelical Church

C. G. Unangst, Pastor

The watch night service last week was a fitting close for the old year.

In attendance and spirit the service was encouraging and inspiring. The character and quality of the testimonies evinced a clear vision of spiritual realities.

Bishop W. F. Heil, of Allentown, Pa., preached at 10:45 a. m., after which the Lord's Supper was celebrated. The number of communicants was larger than for some years past. Five united with the church on confession of faith. One man accepted Christ as his Saviour at the close of the evening service.

Rev. Joseph Taylor will preach on next Sunday at 10:45 a. m. A minister from Chicago will preach at 7:30 p. m.

The Sunday school meets at 9:30 a. m. Lesson subject for the day, "Baptism and Temptation of Jesus." Matt. 3:13-4:11. The lessons are interesting and the fellowship delightful. Come to the Bible school.

Christian Endeavor meeting at 6:45 p. m. Topic, "How Can Nations Practice the Golden Rule?" Matt. 7:12; 20:20-29. Young people not attending elsewhere are invited to this meeting.

Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock.

The pastor conducted a service at the Home for Aged and Disabled railway men at 3:00 p. m. on last Sunday. This was the third service he has conducted there and the men manifested a fine appreciation of the messages and songs.

A very substantial sum of money was presented to Rev. and Mrs. Unangst as a Christmas gift from the church. The pastor expressed thanks to the congregation at the service last Sunday morning. It is his desire to render the best service of which he is capable to the congregation and community.

"The day is coming when each one of us will have a personal interview with God as to how we have fulfilled the task which He has committed to us." Selected from the Keswick Calendar, January, 6.

St. Paul's Evangelical Church

F. G. Piepenbrok, Pastor

Church school—9:15 a. m.

Worship service—10:30 a. m.

Choir Friday—7:30 p. m.

Confirmation Saturday—9:00 a. m.

The attendance at the first service of the New Year was indeed gratifying. Such splendid attendance serves as an inspiration and encouragement to pastor and worshippers. A good beginning has been made. Let's keep it up. Come again next Sunday and bring your friends.

St. Paul's Evangelical church holds annual meeting January 1.

St. Paul's Evangelical church completed another successful year as all reports indicated. The election of officers resulted in the re-election of Mr. C. A. Selig as president and financial secretary. Mr. Geo. Sticken as secretary, Mr. Fred Labahn as trustee. Mr. Geo. C. Meyer was elected as an additional trustee.

Other officers did not come up for election and are Mr. Fred Horenberger treasurer, and the Messrs. Hy Herchenroder, James Mailfald and Floyd Bock trustees.

Holy Cross Catholic Church

Rev. C. L. McDonough, Pastor

Sunday masses 8 and 10 a. m.

Saturday morning—Instruction classes for children.

9:00 a. m.—Confirmation.

9:45 a. m.—First Holy Communion.

Saturday evening—Confessions between 7 and 9 o'clock.

Monday evening—Holy Name society meeting at 8 o'clock.

Tuesday evening—Choir rehearsal.

Highland Park Presbyterian Church

Laurel and Linden avenues

Rev. Frank Fitt, minister

Thursday:

7:45 The Drama Reading group will meet in the home of Rev. and Mrs. Frank Fitt, 95 Prospect avenue. Henrik Ibsen's play "The Doll's House" will be read. Those interested in drama are invited to attend.

Friday:

6:40 Scotch dinner sponsored by the Men's Fellowship club. Hon. William Lister, president of the Illinois St. Andrew's society, will be the speaker. Scotch song, Scotch entertainers, et al. will be in full evidence. Make your reservations early.

7:00 Boy Scout meeting in the Junior room of the parish house.

Camp Fire girls meeting in the Camp Fire room, 176 Laurel avenue.

7:30 Meeting of the committee of the township to plan for a community leadership training school will be held in the Bethany Evangelical church, corner of Laurel and Mc-

Govern avenues. Each church is urged to send at least one delegate to this meeting.

Sunday:

9:00 Girls' choir rehearsal in the church.

9:15 Boys' choir rehearsal in the parish house.

9:45 Church school.

11:00 Morning worship. The pastor's sermon topic is "Christ and the Family."

6:15 Boys' Glee club rehearsal in the parish house.

7:00 Young People's society. A special surprise meeting is being planned. A meeting of the executive committee will follow the service.

Monday:

2:30 The Woman's Missionary society will meet in the home of Mrs. John Putnam, 221 Prospect avenue. Mrs. Cleland B. McAfee will speak on her tour of the foreign mission stations. The women of the church are cordially invited to attend.

Tuesday:

2:30 The Presbyterian Guild will meet in the home of Mrs. Myron C. Rybolt, 986 North Green Bay road and she will be assisted by Mrs. H. C. Zimmerman. Mrs. E. Graham Parker, who with her husband is doing evangelistic work in the Feteharh, Indiana, mission station will be the speaker. The members of the church are cordially invited.

Wednesday:

7:45 Church Night program. Dr. Harris Franklin Rall will give his second lecture on "Problems of Personal Living" and his theme will be "The Way of the Ancient Word." A service of praise and prayer will precede Dr. Rall's lecture. You are cordially invited.

Highland Park Methodist Church

North Avenue at Lauretta Place

Frank Davidson Hopkins, Minister

Throughout the Christian church everywhere, the year 1930 will have special recognition as the Nineteenth Centenary of the pentecostal year when the Christian church was founded. It is a most vital and interesting subject and the pastor will speak next Sunday morning upon that theme, using the topic "The Story of Pentecost." There will also be the observance of the Lord's Supper, the first in the New Year.

The Epworth league gathered at the home of its president, Matt Maiman, on Green Bay road last Friday evening for a pleasant social evening and had a very pleasant time. It was the first event of the kind held under the auspices of the newly organized league, but many others will follow.

The Ladies' Aid will hold an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. Marks, corner of Walker avenue and Lauretta place, although those not able to attend until later will be welcome. Lunch will be served at noon.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society will meet with Mrs. H. V. Nichols, at 47 Elm avenue, next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. Mrs. Julia Evans will assist in entertaining and Mrs. Maiman will have charge of the book review for the day.

All our young people are invited to

(Continued on Page 29)