IT'S TOUGH GOING AT RAVINIA RINK

Weather Doesn't Help a Bit, Says Mr. Degenhardt, But They're Not Discouraged

F. V. Degenhardt, who is certainly doing his bit in the matter of keeping the Ravinia skating rink before the public, sends another interesting and sprightly letter regarding this community sport center for winter months. The letter follows:

Someone tacked the following "Lost" advertisement up in the Ravinia skating clubhouse the other day "Lost, blue Angora woman's sweater." This weather is enough to make anyone feel blue, especially the skaters. But this mild weather is bound to change and we generally get some mighty chilly weather in February. A country paper in the northern section of this state printed this advertisement: (no doubt they want a skater for a boarder) "For rent, nice room, to gentleman, looking both ways, and well ventilated."

Dr. Obermeyer Speaks at N. S. Art League

The North Shore Art league wish to remind the public of the lecture to be given by Dr. Obermeyer at the community house, Winnetka, Wednesday evening, January 22, at 8:15 o'clock.

Dr. Obermeyer's subject will be "Art of Life, and Approach to Modern Aesthetics." This lecture is under the auspices of the North Shore Art league.

Tickets may be procured from any member of the league. They will also be sold at the door the evening of the lecture.

Filodrammatic Club Program Is Success

The benefit performance given Sunday evening at the Elm Place school by the Filodrammatic club of Highwood was a most successful affair, financially. The club expresses their appreciation to the public for their splendid co-operation and attendance which helped to make the performance so successful.

The entertainment itself was very good, each member of the cast doing his part in a most creditable manner. The closing number was sung by Giovanni Aiello, which was greatly enjoyed as was shown by the applause.

Skating Races for School Children at Sunset Park Jan. 17

Skating races for grade school children will be held at Sunset Park rink Friday, Jan. 17, at 3:30 o'clock, under the direction of the East Park board. There will be a 50-yard race for boys and for girls in each year from seven to 15 years of age. Each school in Highland Park will enter a four-man relay team, and much interest is being manifested in the outcome of these contests.

Silk ribbons will be given for first, second, and third places in each age class and for the first four places in the relay race. This promises to be an interesting program, and a large number of entries is expected.

Highwood Police Take Soldier Into Custody

Arrested on charges of improper conduct, private Frank Miller of Fort Sheridan, was taken in charge by the Highwood police Saturday afternoon. According to the testimony of several people in Highwood and Highland Park, Miller was acting indecently. He was turned over to the hospital authorities at Fort Sheridan.

Two Autos Reported Stolen; One Recovered

Police along the north shore were looking for two automobiles which were stolen from Highland Park over the week-end.

On Saturday a Pierce Arrow sedan was stolen as it was parked in the down town district and on Sunday a Hupmobile sedan was stolen from a Highland Park garage and driven away. It was later located.

Notable Features of Daily Times, Chicago's New Picture Newspaper

Chicago's picture newspaper, the Daily Times, has introduced the novel radio idea in connection with its latest comic strip, which runs under the title of "Sammy Squirt." Sammy appears in the Daily Times every day as a wise-cracking soda jerker and his exploits win for him ready place in anybody's heart. Sammy broadcasts every morning between 11:30 and 12 noon over the WBBM-Daily Times radio station. If you listen, you may hear him announce your name and if you telephone him an answer at the Daily Times office, he will send you a check for $5.

The Daily Times announces $1,500 in cash prizes for the last chapter to its new mystery story "Wise Jane," by John Collins. The Times will print 26 chapters dealing with the exploits of a girl reported in solving a murder mystery. All the clues which she has to work on are given in the 26 chapters. A first prize of $1,000 will go to the person who reads the story and writes the 27th chapter most nearly like the solution of the mystery which is contained in Mr. Collins 27th chapter.

Another interesting feature in the Daily Times is a prize of $100 each day for the last line of a comic limerick.

The Daily Times is Chicago's new tabloid illustrated paper. It started in September and already has broken American records for circulation and advertising volume gained in a period of four months.

No Council Meeting Held Monday Evening

No session of the Highland Park city council was held Monday evening, and the next regular meeting is Monday evening of next week. The members of the council and members of the zoning board held a conference Monday evening on zoning matters, but there was no formal public session.

It is noted that with the completion of the new city garage at Blodgett the offices of City Street Superintendent and Sewer Superintendent have been removed from the city hall to new quarters in the garage building where city machinery and material is stored.

Boxing Show at Fort Sheridan January 23; Dempsey to Be Present

In the presence of General J. V. Clinnin, chairman of the Illinois State Boxing commission, and Jack Dempsey, the first all-service boxing show to be held here in several years will take place in the Post gymnasium, Thursday evening, Jan. 23, starting at 8:15 p. m. Eight bouts have been arranged, six between soldiers of this post, and two between Fort Sheridan soldiers and sailors from the Great Lakes Naval Training Station. Ring-side seats will be two dollars with general admission one dollar. The public is cordially invited to attend. The proceeds of the show are to go to the Post Recreation fund for the benefit of post athletics. This is the first of a series of bi-monthly boxing shows to be staged by the military authorities of Fort Sheridan.
