"The Jubilee Celebration"

Golden Jubilee Anniversary! 50 years of continuous work as a church. Such an event merits a great celebration and much rejoicing and so we enter into just such an occasion next Sunday morning when the morning service fittingly observes this anniversary. Rev. Aubrey S. Moore, our district superintendent, a comparatively young man of most pleasing personality and a fine preacher, will preach the anniversary sermon, and it will be well worth hearing by all our members and friends. Let us make it a great audience that shall greet him, filling every seat in the church. Other former pastors will also be participants in the services and the choir has prepared several selections of special music for the occasion.

On Sunday evening at 7:45 there will be another special service which we might designate as "Echoes of Fifty Years," as it will be given over to the stories and reminiscences of former pastors and laymen who have in turn been associated with the church ever since its organization and even before, for one or two men are still living who were members of the Sunday school which preceded the organization of the church and they will speak briefly; it will be a most interesting story. Rev. Clyde Hay, Rev. H. L. Lawler, Rev. H. D. Dick, Rev. Wm. E. Grose and Rev. Wm. B. Rose, and Rev. Wm. B. Double and possibly other former pastors are (Dick) expected to be present. The musical numbers will include selections by the choir and also instrumental numbers. There will also be special observance of the day in the Sunday school and the Epworth league.

The Golden Jubilee Anniversary banquet on Tuesday evening, Jan. 21, at the Y. W. C. A. banquet hall, on Laurel avenue, adjoining the Public Library, will be another outstanding event of the celebration. The banquet will be served at seven o'clock and it is expected that all available room will be occupied by our members and friends. Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes will be the principal speaker of the evening and will be introduced by Rev. Thompson, popular pastor of the Chicago temple, the "skyscraper church in the Loop." Both these men are among the best known Methodists in America and their addresses will be well worth going far to hear. Mayor Lewis is expected to say a few words and Rev. J. H. Taylor, "Pastor-at-Large for Highland Park" has been asked to say a few words in behalf of the pastors of the community.

having lived here longer than any of them, and having been brought up a Methodist.

We invite the parents not merely to send their children to the school but to bring them. The sessions are intended for people of all ages. The lesson title for Sunday is, "Jesus Begins His Ministry." Matt. 4:17-25.

The Christian Endeavor society meets at 6:45 p. m. All young people not attending elsewhere are cordially invited to this service. Topic, "Shall We Abolish or Expand Missions? Why?" Matt. 28:18-20; Acts 1:8.

Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock. When believers appear before Jesus Christ to have their works judged, they will see that it was a mistake not to have attended and participated in the prayer services of the church. 2 Cor. 5:10; 1 Cor. 3:12-15.

The pastor conducted the quarterly meeting services at Bethel church at Dixon, Ill., over last Sunday. The Sunday evening service was very much like a revival meeting. Sin was confessed and lives were yielded to God. On Monday morning the wife of a prominent business man was happily converted. Paul Gordon, the new pastor, was installed and the church is looking forward to a successful ministry. Mr. Unangst left Dixon with a heart overflowing with joy.

The services here were well attended and we are looking forward to another good day next Sunday.
