Mrs. Lloyd M. Bergen, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. C. I. Mansur, returned to her home in Virginia on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Slayback entertained out of town guests at a dinner party last night followed by bridge.

Betty June Ulbert, who makes her home with her aunt, Mrs. Hall of McGovern street, is ill with scarlet fever.

MEMORY

Fond memory of Virginia, who died one year ago:

The Master appeared
In our garden one day
And plucked from its stem
The flower away,
The flower thus plucked
Was full bloom and rare,
The soul of a girl, pure,
White and most fair,
Dreamlessly, peacefully sleeping,
Free from sorrow or care,
Abiding in peace everlasting,
Awaiting her loved ones over there.
LONELY MOTHER, DAD, SISTER, FLOR-ENCE, WILLARD AND BOBBY.
WALSH FAMILY.

Oak Terrace News

Oak Terrace vs. Elm Place

A basketball game was played last Thursday evening in the Oak Terrace auditorium between Oak Terrace and Elm Place. The game was an exciting one. The lightweights and heavyweights of Oak Terrace won both games. The score was: Heavyweights, 39-9; Lightweights, 13-11.

The next evening another game was played, this time between Lake Forest and Oak Terrace. The score was 45 to 6 in Oak Terrace's favor.

Girl Reserves

The Junior Girl Reserves of the Oak Terrace school or the Makiolets, as they prefer to be called, held their regular meeting last Wednesday in their adviser's, Miss Draeger's room. The following officers were elected: Lorraine Doretti, president; Jean Overholser, vice president; Agnes Svendsen, secretary; Naomi White, treasurer.

The Makios or Senior Girl Reserves of the Oak Terrace school dropped in during the meeting as visitors.

The Makios met last Friday in Miss deHartog's room. They discussed the initiation program for the Makiolets, the milk fund, and the sandwich and candy sale to be held next Wednesday.

—Ethel Svendsen.
