Miss Ellen Elsa Flach

Alexander R. Carqueville of Highland Park, director of the Union League club, and Miss Ellen Elsa Flach, former German moving picture actress, were married at 5 o'clock last Friday afternoon at the Belden-Stratford hotel, where Miss Flach has been residing for the last year, according to a Chicago paper, which continues:

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left on a two months' honeymoon trip to the South Sea islands. On their return they will make their home at 176 Laurel avenue, Highland Park.

Miss Flach is the daughter of a leather goods manufacturer in Hanover, Germany, and for several years acted in German films. She came here a year ago to study the English language. She is 30 years old and Mr. Carqueville is 54. Until his retirement two years ago Mr. Carqueville was a partner in the lithographing firm of Rolland & Carqueville. He is a member of the Exmoor Country club and of the Chicago Athletic association. His first wife was Eva Jeffrey, daughter of Thomas B. Jeffrey.

Philco Dealers Are Guests of Company

The Philco dealers of the Chicago area were recently entertained by the Philco company at a pre-showing of "The Love Parade" at McVicker's theatre. Among the guests were Leonard Wahl and Charles R. McClure, of Motor Car Electric Service of this city. Of interest to radio fans is the new "baby model" Philco seven tube, screen grid set, on exhibition at Motor Car Electric. This set is inclosed in a Riele console cabinet—but is somewhat of a novelty so far as the speaker is concerned—for none appears to be in evidence. Look it over—and give your guess as to the location of "the speaker."
